Cruzin' At

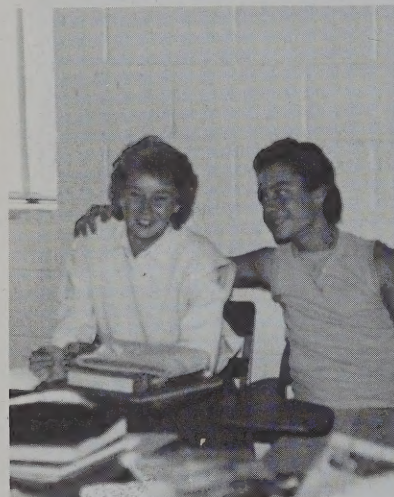

This school year Cradock High School was Cruzin' at the Dock. The beginning of the school year started out smoothly. The teachers were going crazy when students' schedules were being changed. Then the football season started. Both Varsity and Junior Varsity did excellent this year. The homecoming was great with Joseph Reid as our King and Angelique Wilson as our Queen.

Students were nervous when the report cards came out. (Anyone make honor roll?) Students were happy when Thanksgiving came. (Everyone wanted some Turkey.) Soon after, Christmas arrived. (What did Santa Claus bring you?) About a month later, the ever so dreadful EXAMS came. Everyone hit the books for a while to study. (Right?) We then started a new semester and everyone was happy. When springtime came, basketball was near an end. It started to get warm and the baseball, softball, and track teams hit the field.

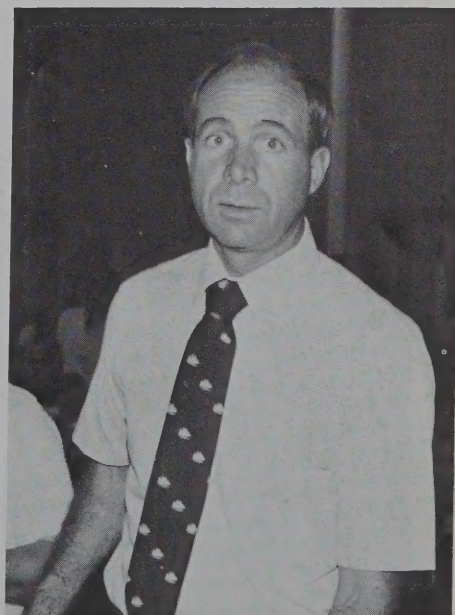

April brought us the Junior-Senior prom. Soon after the dreaded EXAMS came. Seniors felt happy and sad the last week of school — they had to leave their beloved CRADOCK HIGH SCHOOL!

Cradock had a lot of spirit this year. Congratulations to everyone for making this such a memorable year. Seniors — Congratulations — you are all done. We are going to miss you.

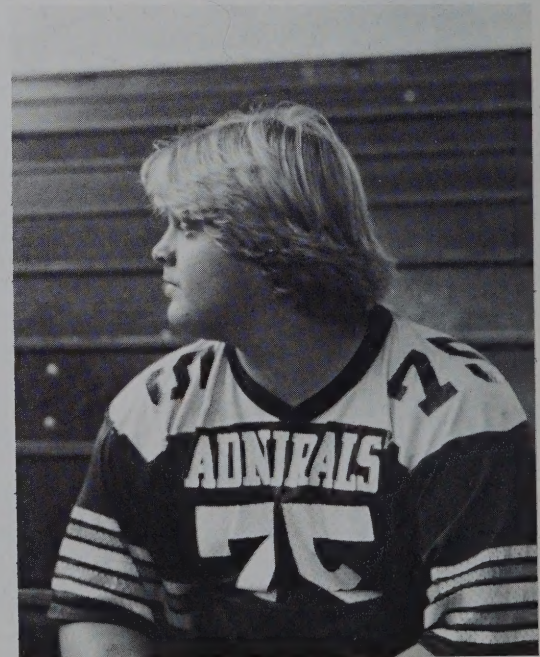

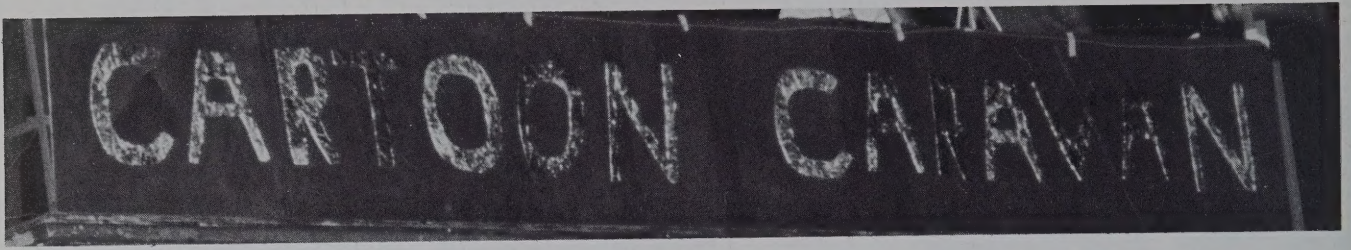

The Admirals were Cruzin' At The Dock at Cradock High School this year. What will next year bring? ...

A Prized Possession

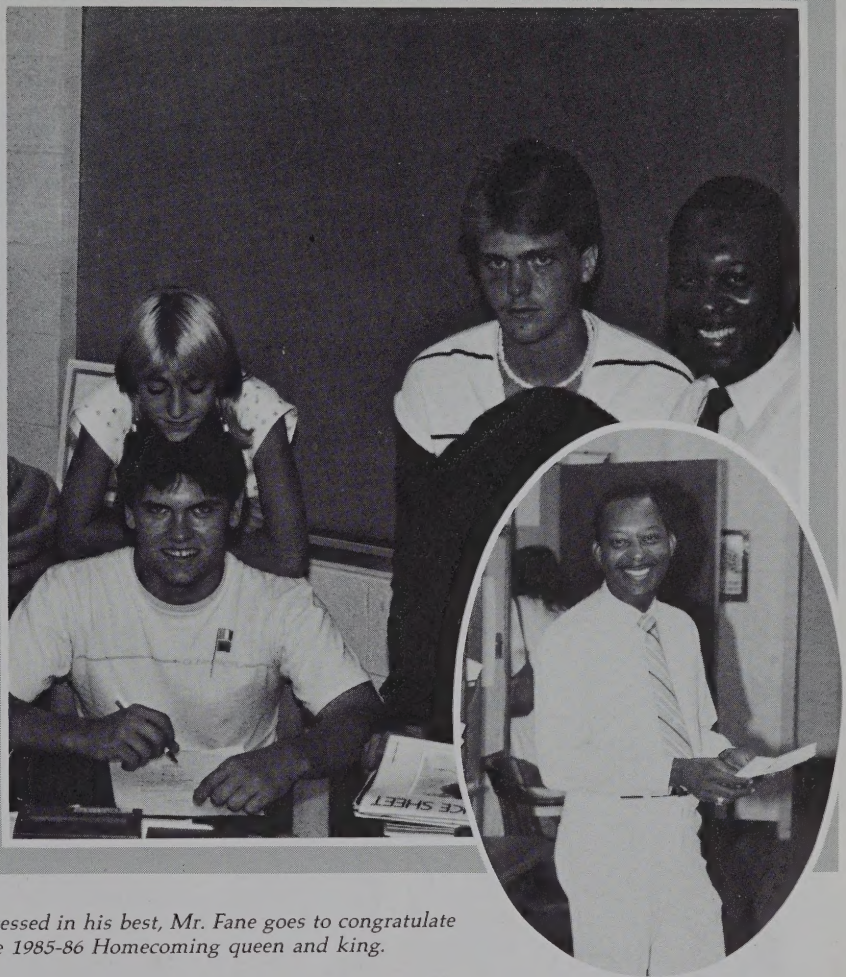

The Admiral Staff proudly dedicates the 1985-86 edition of the yearbook to Mr. Alonso B. Fane.

We have been lucky to have Mr. Fane teaching at Cradock for thirteen years. He has a BS and a Master's Degree in Business Education. At Cradock, he teaches Business Law and General Business. He sponsors the Student Cooperative Association, the Future Business Leaders of America, and also tutors after school with the FOCUS program.

Mr. Fane enjoys traveling to South America and Europe. In addition to this, he enjoys managing parties. He also likes collecting memorabilia and quotations.

We appreciate all the hard work that Mr. Fane has put into helping our school. This is why we can easily say that he is our "prized possession."

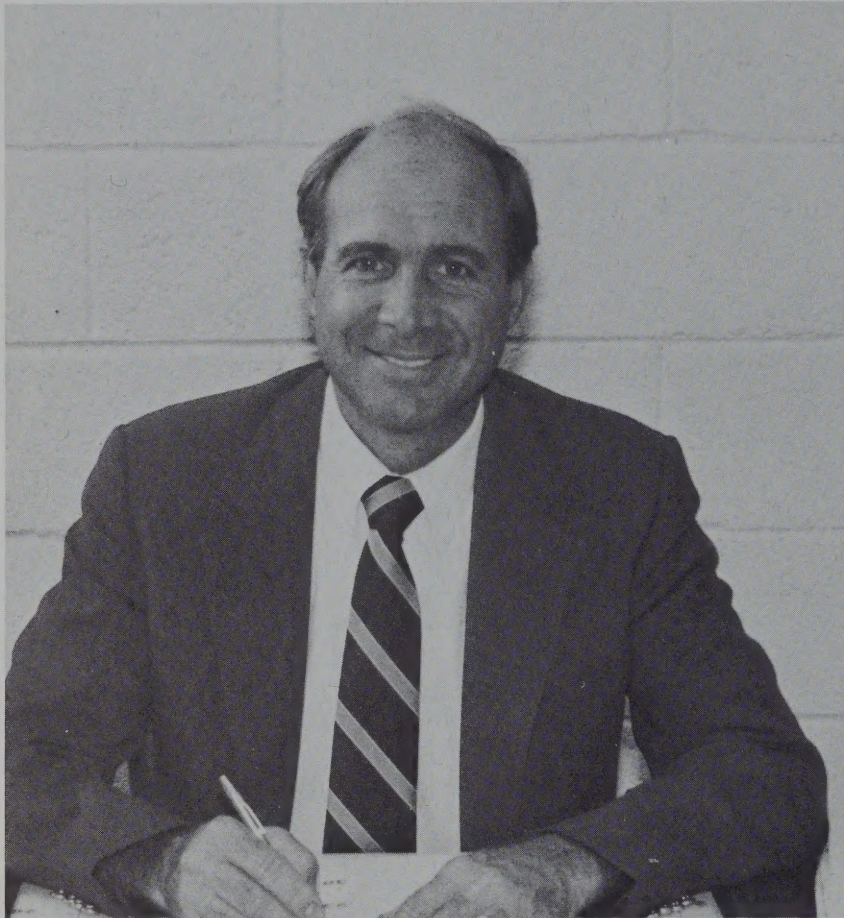

Hard work always produces the best results.

Dressed in his best, Mr. Fane goes to congratulate the 1985-86 Homecoming queen and king.

Even Mr. Hale has time to take a picture.

Mr. Hale likes people. Here he takes time to share some words with Mrs. Wiggins.

ADMINISTRATION

The administration of Cradock High consists of three well trained and understanding gentle men with the capabilities to understand the world of the student. School administrators perform many necessary tasks.

An administrator's job is not an easy one. It takes a lot of patience and dedication for this. Mr. Raymond Hale, the captain of our ship here at "the Dock" is responsible for the smooth sailing of our ship. When Mr. Hale is not contending with business, one of his favorite past times is fishing. Our principal has been here with us for six years, among those years, his most memorable experience is the time that Hurricane Gloria blew into town. He says "It was memorable because Cradock was used as a fallout shelter and the faculty and staff came to assist the almost nine hundred people housed."

The other two men that keep our ship afloat are Assistant Principals — Dr. Owens and Mr. Joyner.

"I'm having so much fun!"

The Maze Of Your Future

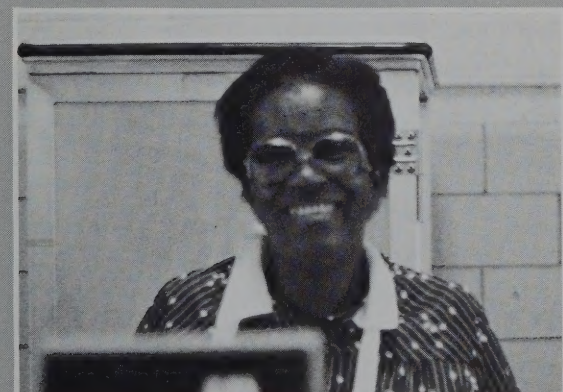

Start =  Help

We deserve a break today ...

Someone'll be down with a pink slip in the next 5 minutes.

Smile, you're on candid camera!

To be friendly, is to be able to get an A.

Finish = Total success

In every facet of their jobs, faculty members dedicate themselves to helping students. Most faculty members, including those with family obligations in addition to their school work, remain at school until 3:30, or return later in the evening to help students with various projects and problems. The teachers' duties consists of more than students realized. While preparing lessons, grading papers and averaging grades comprise a prominent portion of the job, teachers also have several other obligations. Each teacher had numerous faculty meetings to attend. Many faculty members attend teaching conferences where they gain knowledge about instructional methods. The teachers also make themselves available to talk to parents who are concerned about their child's performance. Even with these various additional duties, the teachers remain concerned with helping their students gain success.

... New Beginning

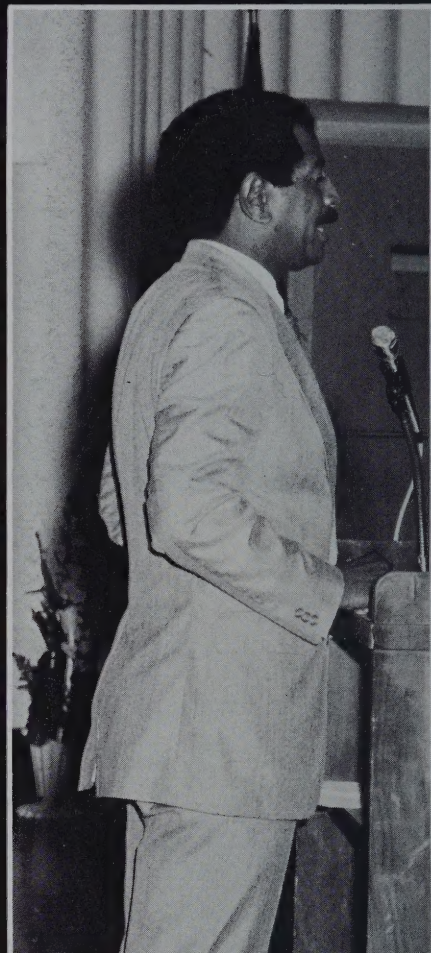

Graduates show mixed emotions about leaving high school.

The administration and class sponsor, Miss Adams — could they be remembering their graduation?

Are these three ready for the world?

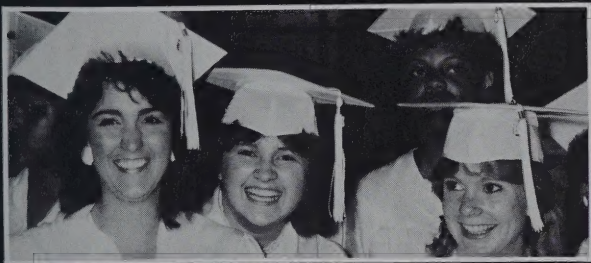

Dr. Rondle Edwards gives the graduates inspiring advice.

The Graduation

Angie Dorsey and Tammie Dail remember both the happy and sad times they spent at Cradock.

And you thought all the parties were after graduation!

It took awhile, but we finally made it.

Class of 1985!

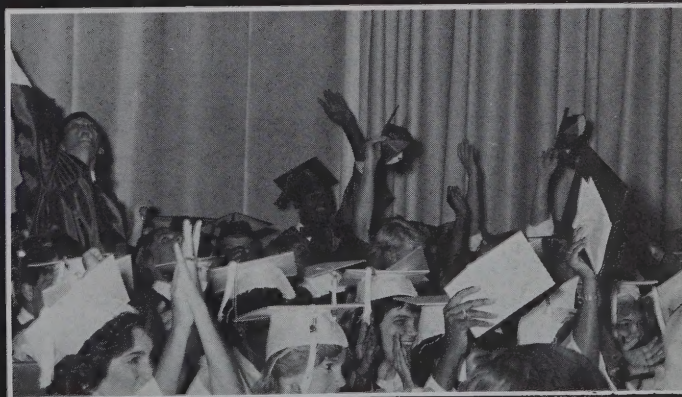

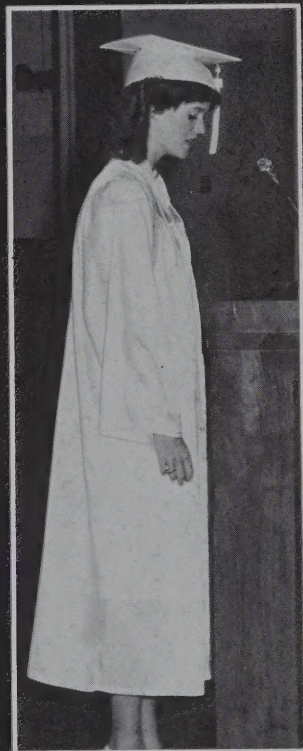

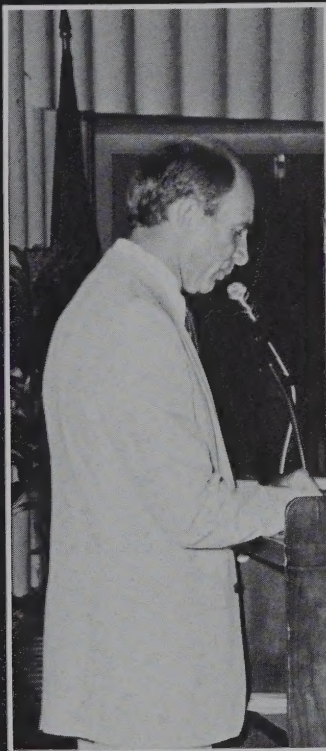

On the thirteenth of June in 1985, the graduating class of Cradock High School ended their high school years. The evening was filled with memories of the past years and hope for the years to come. Pam Whitley, Valedictorian, Deanna Harrell, Salutatorian, and Kim Shreaves, Senior Class President, opened the ceremony with speeches reflecting their feelings on the past and the future.

The graduating seniors were then honored with the presence of Portsmouth's new Superintendent of Public Schools, Dr. Rondle Edwards. He wished the seniors much luck and success.

Then came the moment everyone was waiting for: Mr. Hale finally pronounced the Seniors of 1985 graduates of Cradock High School.

It was a night to be remembered by all, filled with both laughter and tears.

Mr. Hale and the Senior Class President, Kim Shreaves, carry out the commencement exercises.

So long!!!!

Graduation

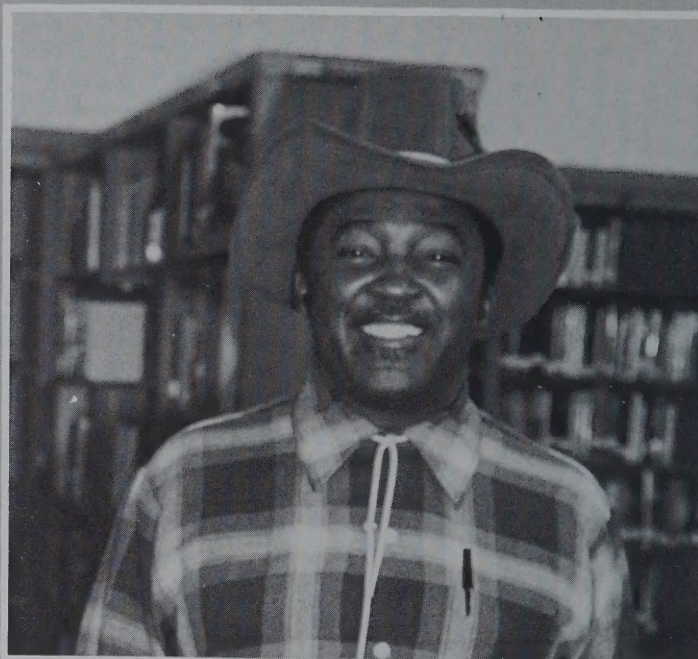

THE DONKEY BASKETBALL GAME

On March 29, 1985, the faculty of Cradock High School played the faculty of Alf J. Mapp Jr. High School in a very friendly game of basketball. However, this game of basketball was no ordinary game. This basketball game was played on the backs of donkeys, which each player was assigned to.

As the game progressed, the players were having fun falling on and off the backs of the donkeys. Everyone who was watching seemed to be having a very good time, including the pooper-scooper, DING CUTCHINS. He was adding a thrill to the game by using a broom and a dust pan like there was no tomorrow.

As the excitement continued, MRS. HAMP-TON jumped on MR. JOYNER's back and they decided to join in the game.

Finally the game ended with the faculty of Cradock High defeating the faculty of Mapp Jr. High by a score of 18 to 12.

A moment to be remembered! Dr. Owens is actually smiling!!!

Hee-Haw:

Our own pooper-scooper! Ding Cutchins!

The team's hero!

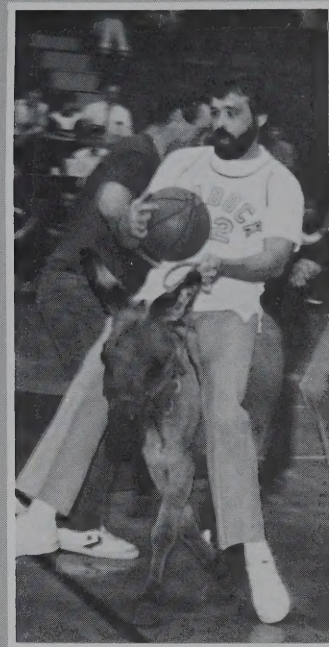

C-R-A-D-O-C-K!

Do I dare?

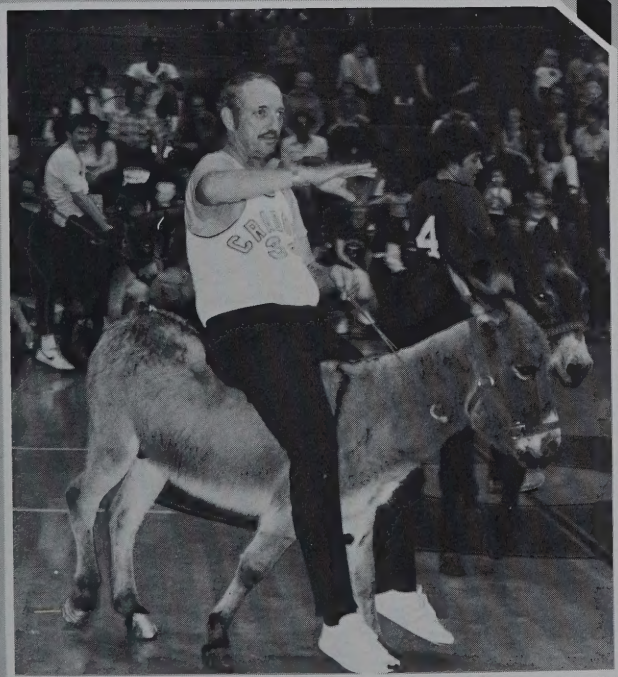

L. to R.: Mrs. Adams, Mr. Joyner, Mrs. Hampton flash their pearly whites.

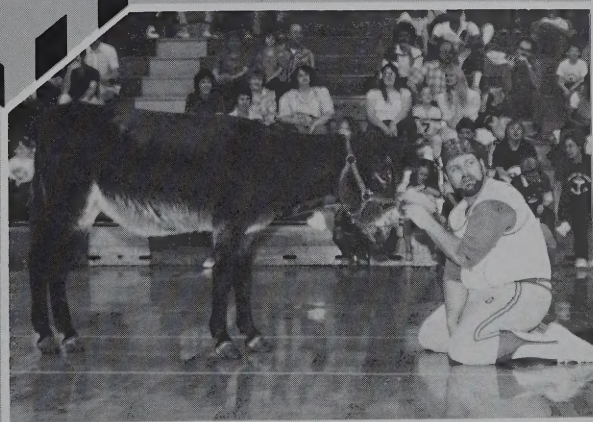

Ride 'em, Parker!

"Let's Have A Ball!"

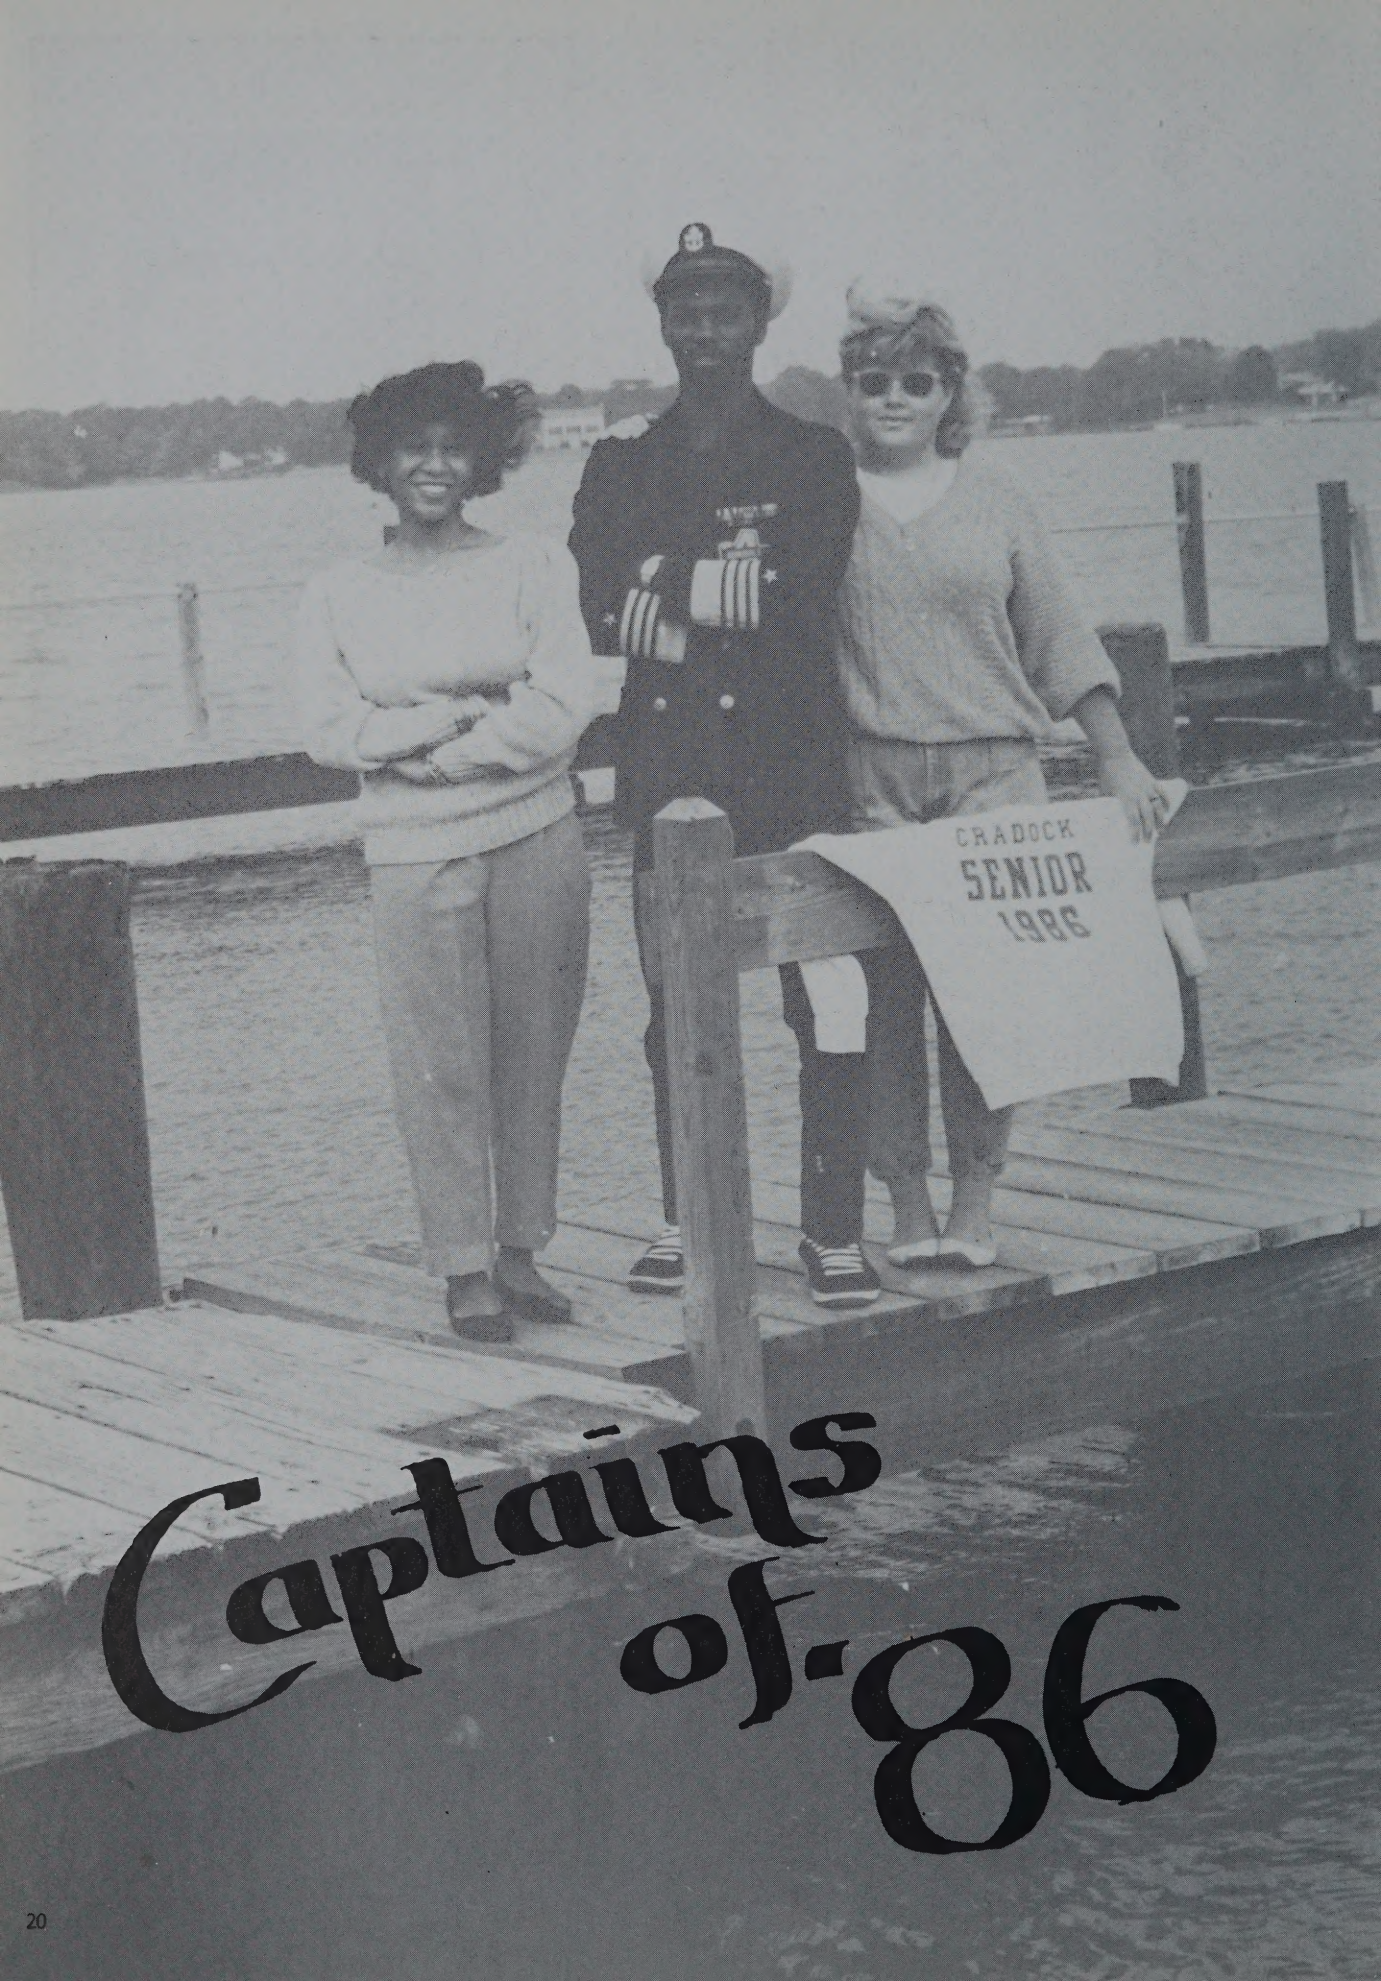

"Look, One Hand!"

"Now that plan A is destroyed, Let's try plan B..."

"Be Easy On Me! The kids have a test tomorrow!"

Seniors Do It Right

SENIORS DO IT RIGHT

This year's Senior Class was led by Senior Class President — Cheryl King, Vice-President — Carl Winckler, Secretary — Eugenia Hardy, and Treasurer — Shane Brooks.

At the onset of the school year, the Seniors elected Robin Gray as Class Historian to prepare the Class History for the Class of 1986 at the Senior Assembly in the Spring. Vernell Buffington was elected by her fellow classmates to be Class Lawyer. Vernell was responsible for reading the last will and testaments at the Senior Banquet and Senior Assembly.

To have a more direct say-so in Senior activities, each homeroom nominated Senior representatives to represent them at all Senior meetings. Homeroom 113 was represented by Sherdina Granger, Homeroom 316 by Melanie Quesenberry, Homeroom 317 by Susan Posey, and Homeroom 101 by Petrina Chapman. These special seniors reported back to their peers all activities and plans discussed at each and every Senior meetings.

The Class of 1986 was led by Miss Geraldine Adams. Her time, efforts, and endless hard work was greatly appreciated by the Senior Class.

GOOD LUCK SENIORS!

Best Looking

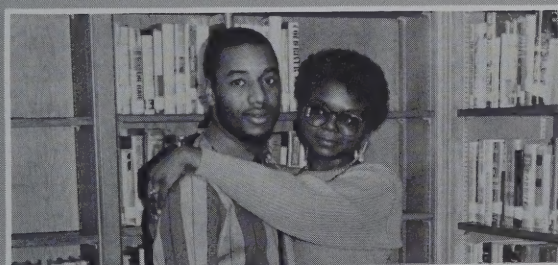

What are dreams made of? Philip Michael Thomas? Cybil Shepard? Don Johnson? Or how about Shelia E? Maybe, but one thing is for sure, Kim Bryant and Henry Barber are not far behind! Considered by most to be the best looking guy and gal in the Senior Class, these people are without a doubt the subject of many dreamland fantasies!

Friendliest

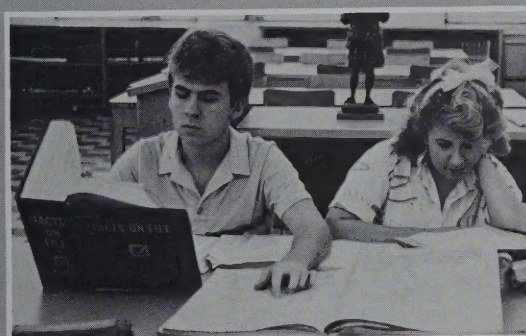

Exactly what is a friendly person? Is it someone who likes everyone and is in return liked because of that? Or is it a person who is always cheerful and full of happiness? It's both of these things and much much more. If you like these qualities, then Jimmy Gorrell and Rowena Barber are the boy and girl you're looking for! They're always there when you're down and out, offering a smile and words of encouragement. No word really exists to describe these two, but "FRIENDLY" is as close as one can get!

Biggest Flirt

Remember seeing that cute girl in your study hall who constantly kept throwing all the guys that certain look? You know that look with the head slightly nodded and that flirtatious grin showing off those pearly whites? Or how about that good looking guy at lunch who gave each and every girl who walked by the once-over twice, nodding and shaking his head with a grin of approval. Vincent Savage and Bobbie Mason will definitely go down in the annals of Cradock history as two of the biggest flirts ever know!

Most Scholastic

Whose head did you always see beared in a book? What two people always raised their hands when the teacher asked questions? Of course, you have got to say Melanie Quensberry and Christopher Quensberry. They are TOP among Seniors in the Scholastic Department. We know that Melanie and Christopher will achieve every goal they set and so much more!

Most Dependable

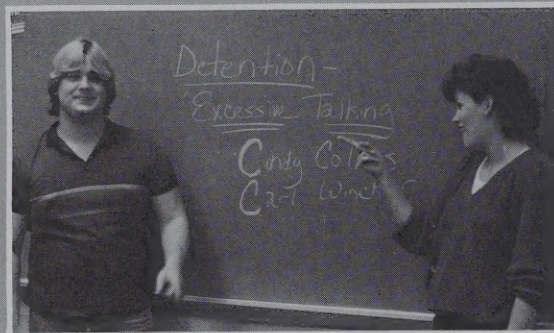

Being absolutely dependable and trustworthy isn't the quality that most people can lay claim to. Susan Posey and William Joseph have this attribute in excess. A good reputation like their's isn't easy to come by. It requires a lot of dedicated service to fulfill the obligations and promises that they have made. So here's to you Susan and William, Keep up the good work!

CREATIVE? INNOVATIVE? INVENTIVE? Or just plain talented? Any of these words and many others can be used to describe Shane Brooks and Belinda McDowell. Shane and Belinda are known in the Senior Class, and indeed throughout the school, as talented individuals. Streisand and Stallone look out, Belinda and Shane are on the way!

Most Talkative

'Cindy Collins STOP talking, and Carl Winckler, you better be quiet and work or I'll send a note home to your father!' For Carl and Cindy, class is not for working but for socializing. If talking was an Olympic event ... they would surely win by a mile! But seriously, Cindy and Carl are just two people who have alot to share with others, even if nobody really wants to hear it!

Cutest Couple

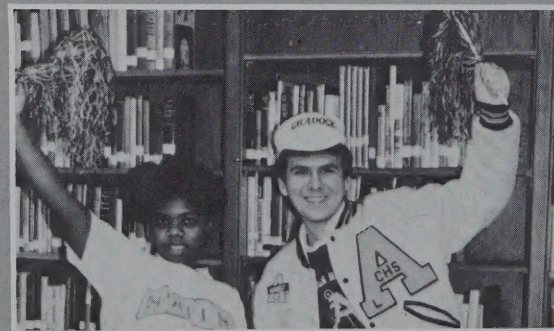

Seeing a couple walking down the hallways, holding hands and staring longingly into each other's eyes ... It's not too uncommon a sight here at Cradock High, but few can do it with the style of Patrick Homick and Tammy Kittrell. Anyone who has ever seen Patrick and Tammy together will definitely agree, they are the Cutest Couple in the Senior Class. So Patrick and Tammy, Good Luck and Best Wishes for the Future!

Best Dressed

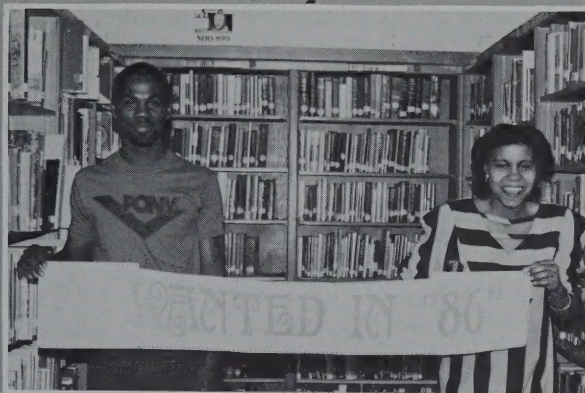

Who will be on the cover of GQ or Vogue next year? Hmmm, let's see, if they come looking at Cradock, Joseph Reid and Tammie Rouse are sure to get the parts! Voted Best Dressed in the Senior Class, Joseph and Tammie are always to be seen in the height of fashion. Be it sweaters or designer jeans, Tammie and Joseph know what's hot and what's not in the world of fashion!

Most School Spirited

Q. Who do you find at EVERY game or meet; jumping up and down cheering the maroon and gold on to victory?
A. Usually, it's either Christopher Quensberry or Petrina Chapman. Trina and Christopher are about as spirited as people can get and not be sent to the Funny Farm! GO ADMIRALS!!!

Most Popular

Whose names did you always hear in the hallways of Cradock High? Whose faces were most seen? Of course, you have to say, Fred Bellamy and Angeline Wilson! They made themselves known among Cradock students by talking and being "OUTRAGEOUS"!

Most Athletic

There's more to being an athlete than just being a jock. This is a fact that Robin Gray and Alfred Mayfield are well aware of. Being able to succeed at sports, these two know that it requires a great many skills. DEDICATION, INTELLIGENCE, SPORTSMANSHIP, and of course, TALENT are qualities that have won Robin and Alfred the title of MOST ATHLETIC in the Senior Class!

Best All Around

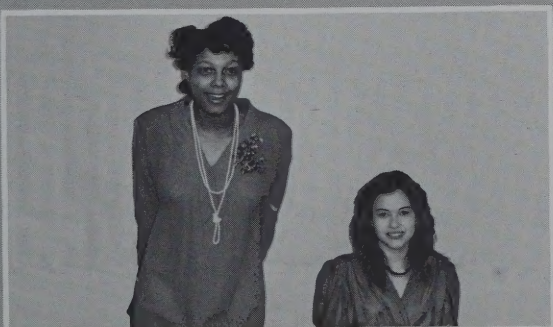

Best All Around really suits these two Seniors. Cheryl King and Curtis Coles are all these Superlatives wrapped up in one! They have all these qualities which makes them special! So Curtis and Cheryl, Remember that you are BEST ALL AROUND, that should make you both on Top of the World!

Wittest

Who made us laugh? Who turned our frowns into smiles? Eugenia Hardy and Matty Hinds do this and so much more. Their crazy jokes and witty personalities kept us in stitches. Thank you Matty and Eugenia! May your lives be filled with laughter and joy!!!

Shortest And Tallest

Whose head did you always see above the crowd? Whose head couldn't you see? Tracy Parker and Stephanie Raynor were the Tallest and Shortest among the Senior Class.

Almost Paradise

The Junior Class of 1986 put alot of care and time into the 1985 prom. Raising money for the prom included the selling of jewelery and the ever popular Homecoming dance. The events brought in a great deal of money which made it possible to have a fantastic prom.

The Juniors, under the guidance of Mrs. Marie Callo and Miss Geraldine Adams, worked long and hard. There were many hours of work and preparation put into the decorating of the Elks Lodge. The week before the prom was maddening for Cradock and the students. As the days passed, excitement and anticipation grew with the reality that the long awaited day was finally here.

May 11 arrived and with it the Cradock High School students and teachers in their tuxedos and gowns. The Elks Lodge was filled with love, both young and old. Everyone danced to the music of Cold Duck.

The main events of the evening arrived with the crowning of Brenda Ganzenmueller and Malcolm Gatling as prom King and Queen.

You want to dance with who?

1985 prom King and Queen — Malcolm Gatling and Brenda Ganzenmueller.

I'm actually at the prom. Can you believe it?

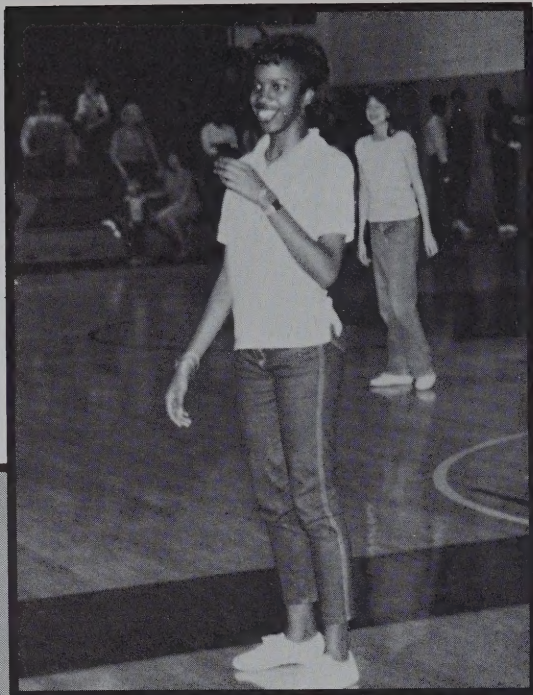

Would you like to dance?

Being a hostess is the best part of the prom.

a kiss!

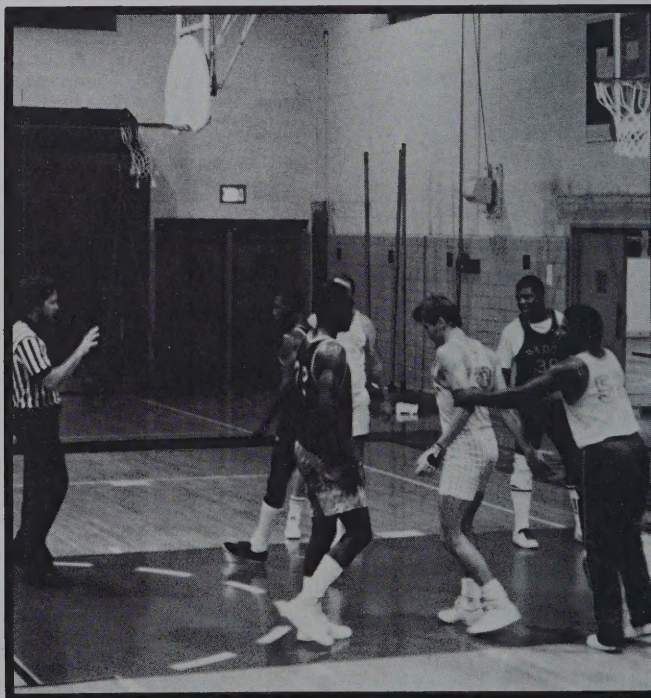

Ms. Dugan shows her techniques.

Every year the Seniors attempt to defeat the Faculty in the Senior-Faculty basketball-volleyball games. The Seniors put up a good fight but were still unsuccessful in their attempt. The Faculty members played a pretty mean game. Good luck to the Seniors of '87.

O.K. fellows, let stop the fighting.

Fred is dead!

The war begins!

It's a fight to the end.

THE CLASSIC CLASS OF 1986

June 12, 1986, that is the date that every Senior wants to hear. But what happens next? The class that has become so close will then go its separate ways. All that will be left is the history of the class of '86.

September 8, 1981, the date the class of '86 first set foot into Cradock High. The first thing we tried to do was become part of the "in crowd." We had high spirits in getting involved with the fall activities. We may have been new at the school, but we were not alone, so was Coach Bob Parker. On the J.V. football team were Joey Byrum, Curtis Coles, Jimmy Gorrell, Vincent Savage, & Mike Simmons. Cheering them on were Cindy Collins, Renee Copeland, & Yvette Ferrari. In the band were Cathy Futrell, Carolyn Langston, Wayne Mixon, Rudolph Nicholson, Debbie Owens, & Eddie Seader. Next were the winter activities. By this time we felt more comfortable. Playing J.V. basketball were Lynette Mitchell & Angelique Wilson. On the wrestling mats was Wayne Mixon. By now, some 8th graders were known, but others were still shy. Will they come out for the spring? Spring activities came around & we had more involvement. Hitting the J.V. baseballs were Shane Brooks, Joey Byrum, Matty Hinds, Jimmy Gorrell, & Mike Simmons, (at last some new faces). Hitting the tennis balls were Donald Clapper & Steve Vernon. We had no participation in track & softball because as 8th graders, we were unable to play on the varsity level (oh well, maybe next year). Another big activity was the Miss Cradock Pageant. Representing the 8th graders were Cheryl King and Jennifer Morsette.

September 7, 1982, the date of our first Freshman day. We felt privileged because we had someone younger to pick on (& some of us really got carried away with it). Being Freshmen gave us the opportunity to play on the J.V. or varsity level. Rocking in the band were Crystal Boykins, Ethel Dancy, Marla Fluharty, Cathy Futrell, Inger Gardner, Carolyn Langston, Bobbie Mason, Mark McLawhorn, Lisa Oliver, Debbie Owens, Eddie Seader, Helen Waddler, & Natonia Watson. On the J.V. football team were Henry Barber, Derrick Daughtry, Jimmy Gorrell, Ron Kearney, Alfred Mayfield, Wayne Mixon, Joe Reid, Vincent Savage, Charles Shiflett, Steve Vernon, & Carl Winckler. Our team went 5-1-1. Cheering them on to those victories were Kim Bryant, Yvette Ferrari, Brenda Godwin, & Eugenia Hardy. This was a nice welcome for our new Asst. Principal, Dr. Theodore Owens. Running across the country was Donald Clapper. When November hit, everyone was ready for basketball & wrestling. On the J.V. were Robin Gray & Crystal Sampson. Some were excited about playing varsity, like Lynette Mitchell, Carolyn Smith, & Angelique Wilson. Wrestling was Mike Simmons. Next, February rolled around, (man was this year flying)! Playing J.V. baseball were Shane Brooks, Joey Byrum, Jimmy Gorrell, & Mike Simmons. Taking advantage of being able to play on the varsity was Matty Hinds. Playing softball was Anne Newkirk. On the track we found Robin Gray, Alfred Mayfield, Crystal Sampson, Vincent Savage, Eddie Seader, & Vicky Whichard, our manager. In the Miss Cradock Pageant were Kim Bryant, Cheryl King, & Angelique Wilson.

The date was September 7, 1983. As Sophomores, we were in our first year of typing & last year of gym. The band consisted of Crystal Boykins, Ethel Dancy, Marla Fluharty, Bobbie Mason, Mark McLawhorn, Lynette Mitchell, Lisa Oliver, Debbie Owens, & Eddie Seader. They rocked as they led the Admirals, Kevin Chapman, Derrick Daughtry, Jimmy Gorrell, Ron Kearney, & Alfred Mayfield, to the 7-0 upset of Great Bridge. Curtis Coles, Mike Simmons, Steve Vernon, & Carl Winckler were on the J.V. Their spirits were kept up by Kim Bryant, Cindy Collins, Brenda Godwin, Robin Gray, Cheryl King, & Belinda McDowell. Cross country runners were Wayne Mixon, & Steve Venon. Shane Brooks was on the golf team. Another football season came to an end & basketball was on its way. Replacing Coach Sumner as head varsity coach was Mac Carroll. On the J.V. were Kevin Chapman, Curtis Coles, & Mike Simmons. They went 9-4. On the varsity team were Lynette Mitchell, & Crystal Sampson. Dennis Bandy was wrestling. Next, spring season flew around. Grandslamming on the varsity were Jimmy Gorrell, Matty Hinds, Mike Simmons, & Joey Byrum. Allan Foley, Wayne Mixon, Steve Vernon, & Carl Winckler were on the J.V. Backhanding were Donald Clapper, Matty Hinds, Charles Shiflett, & Steve Vernon. On the softball team were Robin Gray, & Anne Newkirk. Making world track records were Henry Barber, Rowena Barber, Kevin Branch, Paula Copes, Sherdina Granger, Eugenia Hardy, Alfred Mayfield, Crystal Sampson, Vincent Savage, & Marcus Smith. Getting dolled up for the pageant were Kim Bryant, Cheryl King, Belinda McDowell, & Lynette Mitchell. Cheryl was 4th runner-up & Belinda was "Miss Cradock 1984." By this time our class was very much known.

We were proud to see September 4, 1984 roll around. We were finally upperclassmen. We started by electing Shane Brooks treasurer, Belinda McDowell secretary, Cheryl King V. President, & Angelique Wilson President of the Junior class. In the band were Ethel Dancy, David Dunn, Marla Fluharty, Inger Gardner, Mark McLawhorn, & Lisa Oliver. On the football team were Henry Barber, Fred Bellamy, Kevin Branch, Kevin Chapman, Derrick Daughtry, Jimmy Gorrell, David House, Rodney James, Mark Maddrey, Alfred Mayfield, Vincent Savage, Patrick Weaver, Carlton Whitfield, Robert Wilkins, & Carl Winckler. William Joseph was the manager of this team that beat Wilson 14-6 in the Turkey Bowl, & Manor 500. Making the All-City, All-District, & All-Tidewater teams was Alfred Mayfield. Keeping their pom-poms in the air were Kim Bryant, Cindy Collins, Robin Gray, Cheryl King & Belinda McDowell. Running cross country was Donald Clapper & teeing off were Shane Brooks, Donald Clapper, & Steve Vernon. After a fairly good season, everyone was wound up for basketball & wrestling. Representing the Admirals were Curtis Coles, Bryon Griffin, & Vincent Williams. Charles Shiflett was the manager of this team that took 1st place in the Portsmouth Catholic Christmas Tournament. Representing the Lady Admirals were Paula Copes, Robin Gray, Lynette Mitchell, & Angelique Wilson. Hard at work on the mats were John Claussen, Alfred Mayfield, Mark McLawhorn, Jerry Phillips, Henry Quattlebaum, Carlton Whitfield, & Carl Winckler. By their sides were Barbara Britt, Chirstina Jordan, Susan Posey, & Mary Sieber. Carl Winckler finished 5th in the district tournament & Alfred Mayfield finished 2nd in the district & 6th in the regional tournaments. New cheerleaders were Eugenia Hardy, Anne Newkirk, & Melanie Quesenberry. Getting into the swing of things with baseball were Joey Byrum, Allan Foley, Jimmy Gorrell, Matty Hinds, Wayne Mixon, Mike Simmons, & Robin Gray & Anne Newkirk on the softball team. Playing tennis were Donald Clapper, Matty Hinds, Charles Shiflett, & Steve Vernon. Tracking people down were Henry Barber, Elston Howard, Vincent Savage, Marcus Smith, Patrick Weaver for the boys, & Rowena Barber, Paula Copes, Sherdina Granger, Eugenia Hardy, & Crystal Sampson for the girls. In the "new & improved Miss Cradock Pageant" were Elizabeth Fitzgerald, Robin Gray, Cheryl King, Susan Posey, & Melanie Quesenberry. Melanie won "most scholastic," Robin was 4th runner-up, Elizabeth was 2nd runner-up, & Cheryl won "best talent" & the title of "Miss Cradock 1985." There's only one more year left!

This is it. September 3, 1985, the 1st & last day of the beginning of a school year. As Seniors, the 1st thing we did was to elect Shane Brooks Treasurer, Eugenia Hardy Secretary, Carl Winckler V. President, & Cheryl King President of our class. October 4, was our last Homecoming. On the court were Kim Bryant, Cindy Collins, Bobbie Mason, Angelique Wilson, Shane Brooks, Jeff Graham, Wayne Mixon & Joe Reid. They were brought on by Crystal Boykins, Ethel Dancy, David Dunn, Marla Fluharty, Cathy Futrell, Inger Gardner, Gary Jones, Mark McLawhorn, Lynette Mitchell, Rudolph Nicholson, Lisa Oliver, Helen Waddler, & Natonia Watson, the Senior members of the band. Joe & Angelique walked off with the honors of King & Queen. To top things off, Henry Barber, Kevin Branch, Kevin Chapman, Curtis Coles, Derrick Daughtry, Jimmy Gorrell, David House, Rick James, Mark Maddrey, Alfred Mayfield, Chuck Seader, Patrick Weaver, Carlton Whitfield, & Carl Winckler, led the Admirals to a 14-12 victory over the Oscar Smith Tigers. It was the 1st homecoming win since 1962. Captains were Derrick Daughtry & Alfred Mayfield. On the sidelines were Kim Bryant, Cindy Collins, Elizabeth Fitzgerald, Robin Gray, Cheryl King, Belinda McDowell, Diana Partin, & Melanie Quesenberry. Fred Bellamy was the Admiral & Cheryl & Robin were Captain &

Co-Captain. Crossing the country were Donald Clapper, Chris Quesenberry, Marcus Smith & golfing it were Shane Brooks, Donald Clapper, & Harold Nelson. This group of supporters led the football team to a 7-3 record, the 1st winning season since 1969. The Admirals finished in a tie for 3rd with Indian River in the district & Making the All-City, All-District, All-Tidewater, All-Regional, & All-State teams was the lineman of the year, Alfred Mayfield.

Because of early deadlines, the history cannot go any further, but things can only get better for The Classic Class Of 1986.

"TIME TO SAY GOOD-BYE"

And we never thought we'd see the day
That the end would be this near
And it breaks our hearts to have to say
That this song's to say "good-bye"

And long after we have gone away
We'll just close our eyes and cry
Knowing how we felt today
And we'll always remember,

How we ...
Kept smilin', kept shining
Even though the road was sometimes long
And dark ...
But now we all must part.

The good times and bad times
Will remain within all our hearts
So we'll never be to far.

Well you came an opened our minds
And now there's so much more in our eyes
And we'd really like to thank you
And now that the time has come to part
Well then Cradock you should know
The words are coming from our hearts
And we'll always remember,

How we ...
Kept smilin', kept shinnin'
Knowing we could always count on you
It's true ...
Now our life starts new.

You helped to, prepare us
For everything the future holds in store
Now we'll open our own doors.

So Cradock we leave you
Even though our thoughts remain behind
Now it's time to say "good-bye".

"We'll Miss You, Cradock"

How can we be certain what we think is real?
Do we follow intuition, or challenge
what we feel?
Now that we have learned so much
and taken time to grow,
It's time to move on further and make it on our own.

High school experiences lie behind us; friends have come and gone, and twelve hard years of school
have passed.
Now we have the chance to get out
and change the world,
But we know the friends and the memories at Cradock will last.

We feel the end is for certain, that all is said and done,
But living does not stop here; we have only just begun.
So we'd like to thank our friends and family for taking time to love and care
When we needed you, you were always there.

Each of us had our dream, living for each moment,
Wanting to conquer the world, I guess that's just our style.
As we look ahead, we can see our futures shining,
We'll miss you Cradock; you were with us all the while.

Mean Forever!!!

SENIOR A title we all look forward to possessing. Being a senior means the conclusion of high school and the start of your life as an adult. Seniors go through a lot of changes. There's the letting go of things that are old and the grasping of new things. There's leaving friends and loved ones, homes, and hometowns. Also there's the selection of a career or a college to deal with.

Being a senior has its advantages as well as its disadvantages. Seniors have to pay a lot of money for things needed in order to graduate. There's the SAT tests, cap and gowns, the Senior trip, the prom, and the Senior banquet.

Saying goodbye may be the hardest thing to do. You leave friends you may never see again. You leave the past behind but the memories will last forever. This may be the most difficult part of being a senior. But just remember . . .

GOODBYE DOESN'T MEAN FOREVER!!!!!!

SPIRIT WEEK

Spirit is a very important part of going to school at the "DOCK". This year unlike last year there were two weeks of spirit, September 23rd through October 4th. Day One was "Teddy Bear Day". Everyone brought their favorite stuffed animal. Day Two was "50's Day". Everyone dressed up like their parents did when they were in school. Wednesday was "Dress Up Day", Cradock's students never looked so good! The next day we had "Jinx Day". Everyone dressed in Blue and Gold, the colors of Western Branch, our opponents for Friday night's game. Friday, September 27th was scheduled to be "School Colors Day". However, Hurrican Gloria blew in from the continent of Africa with her winds roaring at 120 miles per hour. Needless to say, school was canceled and altered all our plans. Spirit was alive and well the following day however, the football game against Western Branch was reschuduled. It was the Admirals first victory. YEAH!

Week Two opened with "Nerd Day". Cradock had its share of nerds. Nerds could be found everywhere — REVENGE OF THE NERDS! The next day was "Flourescent Colors Day". The students dressed up those blinding colors of orange, yellow, and green from head to toe. On Thursday, we had "Backwards Day". The admirals looked more backwards than ever with shirts, shoes, etc. backwards everywhere! The next day, we were back to "Colors Day", where the students dressed in our traditional colors of Burgundy and Gold. Friday was also our first pep rally and also our HOMECOMING! Boy, was our school rockin' with spirit on that day! Once again we had our usual Spirit Link contest, which by a big lead Miss Rothenberger's homeroom received the victory. Not only her homeroom but everyone at the DOCK rocked with SPIRIT!

"We always dress like this!"

THE BIG DAY

It was October 4, and Cradock High was full of spirit. We started off at 8:00 a.m. with preparations of the Homecoming floats. All of the clubs and other activities got together to make colorful cartoon characters.

At 1:15, the faculty and student body reunited for an hour of fun and excitement. At the pep rally, everyone participated as the band played and the cheerleaders cheered, getting the players ready for the game. The spirit banner was won by Homeroom 317 of the senior class of 1986.

At 2:15, when the final bell rang, the buses were nearly empty. Everyone was ready for the big Homecoming parade.

After the parade, everyone made a brief departure until the big game. At 7:30, Cradock's stadium was filled with spectators as the Admirals kicked off against the Oscar Smith Tigers.

As halftime grew near, the moment grew tense. Everyone was wondering who the king and queen would be. The floats were prepared to take their last stroll around the track.

When the clock ticked down, and the players walked off the field with a score of 6 to 6, the band prepared to play for the Homecoming court as they walked onto the field. At the same time, the floats were going around, hoping to win a prize. The "Most Original" float was the Kappa float. The "Best Carried Out Theme" float was Alf J. Mapp. The "Best Looking" float was the Art Club. Now the moment we all had been waiting for, the coronation of Homecoming king and queen — Joe Reid and Angelique Wilson.

As the game came to an ending, and the lights were turned off, everyone hurried over to the cafeteria to help celebrate the 14 to 12 victory at the Homecoming dance. Everyone was excited about seeing Greg Jay, a disc jockey from Z104.

At 11:30, the dance ended and everyone said their "goodbye's." One thing that we knew would never end is the memory of the "Big Day."

Angelique Wilson and Joe Reid

Cheryl King and Mr. Fane

The students of Alf J. Mapp Jr. High participate in Cradock's Homecoming every year. This year they showed their spirit by winning "Best Carried Out" theme with this float.

Garfield has never looked so good — Cradock's art club displays their talent by winning the title of "Best Looking" float.

The "Kappa" Smurfs were hard at work to produce a successful float. We are proud of such fine work. This float won "Most Original."

Float On To Success

The White House Will

The Senior Class hits Washington, D.C.!

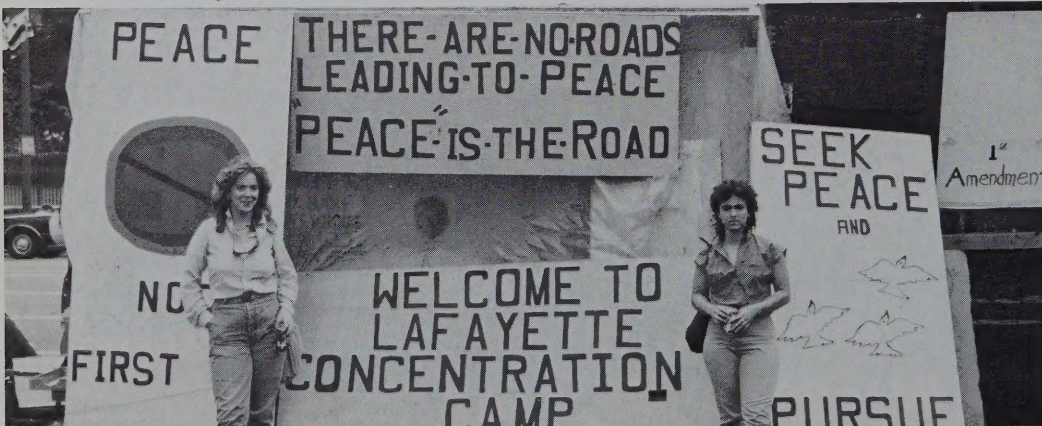

Hanging out at the state Capital.

"This is better than the cafeteria!"

Gidget and Vicki found a chance to voice their opinions.

Future Supreme Court Justices?

Never Be The Same

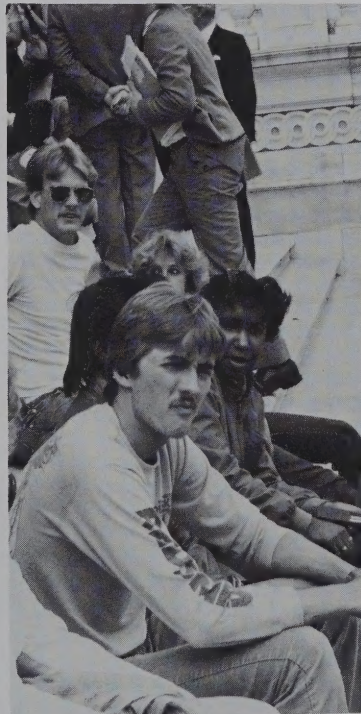

Are Terri Whitehead and Audrey Smith trying to get a bite of Mr. Willett's hamburger?

"This is almost as much fun as going to the beach."

Cradock females show high expectations of the future.

"Having a great time, wish you were here!"

In the spring of 1985, the Senior Government students in Mrs. Claudia Trueblood's and Mr. David Willett's classes took a trip to Washington, D.C.

On the bus ride there, everyone pigged-out on the munchies they brought along. They stayed at the Howard Johnson Hotel outside of Washington. The chaperones were Mr. Willett and Mr. and Mrs. Trueblood. Everyone stayed up late except for Mrs. Trueblood, who turned in at 8:30.

The places they visited included: the White House, in which they had to wait about two hours before they could get in; the Supreme Court building; the Booth Theatre, in which Lincoln was assassinated; the FBI building, in which they were given a demonstration of the weapons; and the Capital building, where Norman Sisisky, Portsmouth's representative to the House of Representatives, gave a tour.

The students lunched at Lafayette Park where all the bums hang out. At Pizza Hut, they ordered 35 pizzas and ate every bit of it. They also ate at McDonalds where they purchased approximately $200 worth of food — that's alot of burgers!

The Washington D.C. trip was full of fun and excitement and everyone enjoyed themselves, plus gained much knowledge of our nation's capital.

Michelle listens tentively to the speech given by Norman Sisisky.

KILLER SENIORS!!!!!!!!!!

The library is such a nice place to share with friends.

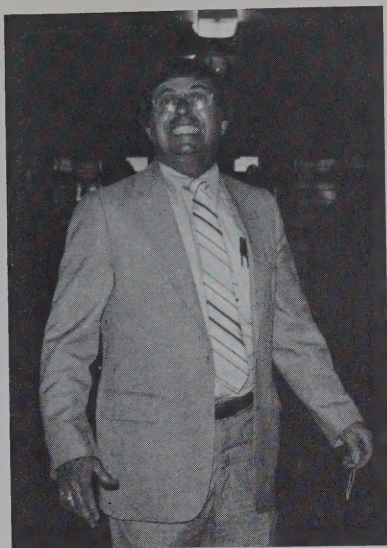

I sure am glad that this is our last year. Aren't you?

This class is so boring.

You want my picture????

Who am I???

Seniors are Number 1!!!

You must be kidding.

This food is so gross.

Officers Activate "Class"

The Junior Class had to have someone to look up to for guidance, to set them straight, and to keep them out of trouble. This lucky person was Mrs. Marie Callo. She provided a helping hand for the many junior activities; candy sales, and jewelry sales, junior ring ceremony and reception, and of course, the Jr.-Sr. Prom! Along with these activities, juniors had to get ready for the PSAT Test and the college fair. It was almost enough to make them wish they were sophomores again. Almost, but not quite.

Of course, the Junior Class couldn't sell their candy, have a ring dance, or other enjoyable activities without someone to take charge. The Junior Class Officers provided this responsible leadership aimed at making the future class of '87 truly great.

Jr. Class officers: President — Rhonda Wood, Vice President — Mary Beth Rich, Secretary — Donna Mercado, Not Pictured: Treasurer — Alvin Thorne.

Mrs. Callo takes time out to turn Al Lawson's ring.

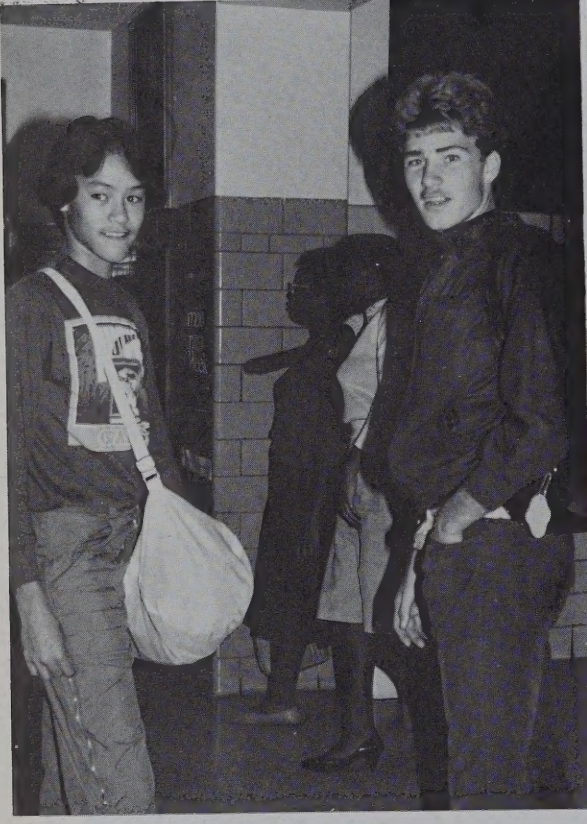

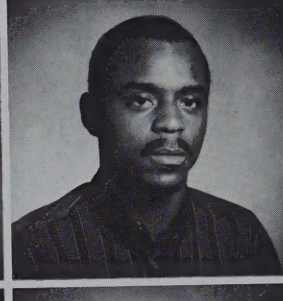

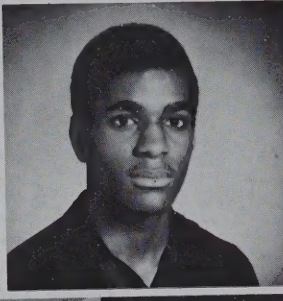

The juniors even have an all-star football player: Armondo Ward!

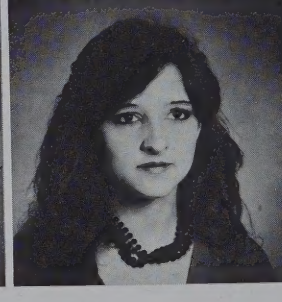

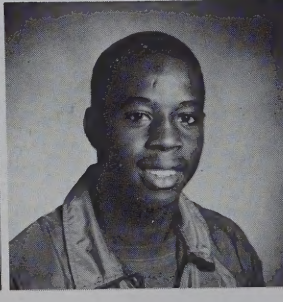

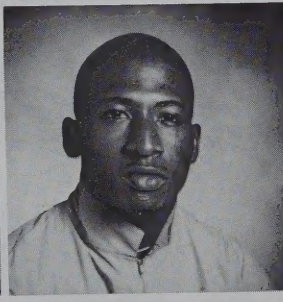

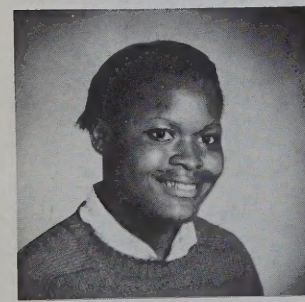

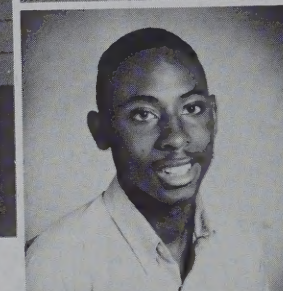

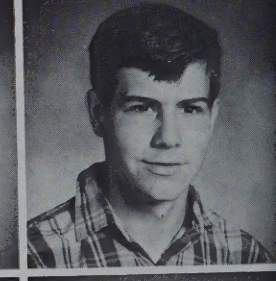

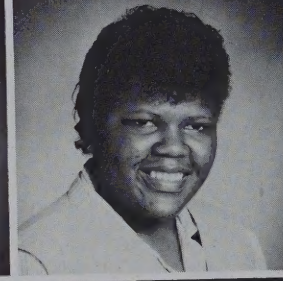

Tender moments are made to be shared.

Sophomores Are Winners Too!!!

On March 18, 1985, Future Business Leaders of America held its annual Regional Business Leaders' Conference at Thomas Nelson Community College.

Representing Cradock High School, was Angeline DeBerry. She competed in the typing category against twelve other students in our area. The token she received was first place and the opportunity of competing at state level. She is an example that states the Mighty Class of 1988 are all winners too!

Another winner!!! Homecoming representative Desta Burke.

10th Grade Life Is . . .

Right: Studying is always the key to success.

Let it all out . . .

Coming to Cradock this year was a step up for this class. By choosing Desta Burke and Troy Waters as the Homecoming Representatives, they showed they now have the chance to voice their own opinions and make their own decisions. One trying decision that had to be made was choosing whether or not to take that extra history class, and if not, what to do with the extra period.

Cradock's sophomore class shows that they have great potential high expectations for the future. They realize they have come a long way, but still feel a little "left out." Seniors have juniors for comfort and support. The freshmen have the much dreaded eighth graders. What does the class of 1988 have to fall back on? EACH OTHER!

Messmates

Freshman: Don't Mess With Us

The Life of a Freshman isn't so "FRESH"

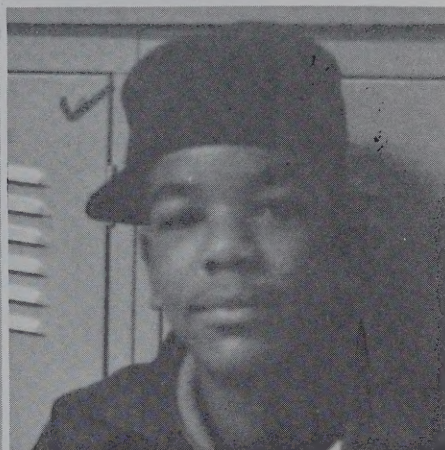

FRESHMAN. It sounded so good when we were in the eighth grade. It meant high school, maturity and adulthood. However, when we discovered what freshmen went through, the word "SOPHOMORE" sounded alot better.

Some things at high school are alright for upperclassmen to do, but if freshmen do it, it's a federal crime. Two things that absolutely are essential for freshmen to do are drop their books, or trip up and fall. If a person drops their books in the hall and they have the great fortune not to be a freshman, they can look up with a look on their faces that says "Hey, I meant to do that. I did that on purpose." They are not a freshman. They meant to drop their books. That's COOL! But let a freshman drop his/her books, then it's all over. As the humiliated ninth grader picks up his/her books, half the people around him/her are dying laughing — and the other half of them are yelling "FRESHMAN!"

Lunch is the worst time for a freshman, never knowing what kind of horrible freshman-eating monster might be there just lurking around a corner or in the bathroom.

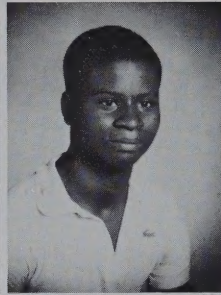

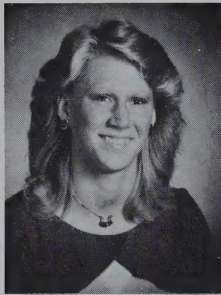

The bathroom is the place freshmen fear the most, especially the one the seniors are in, because if you go in there you might just find your head being flushed.

Well, being a freshman has its advantages. Come to think of it, this way at least you aren't a eighth grade geek. You have a few more years to improve your statue and remember your high school days. So being a FRESHMAN is really "FRESH"!!!!

Stowaways

Is Eighth-Grade Really Worth It?

Senior George Doxey tells eighth-graders the facts of life at Cradock.

Eighth-graders show that they're not quite into Cradock's spirit ... YET!

Eighth-grade ...

If you've ever been at the bottom of a ladder you know what we're talking about. Everyone, and we mean everyone, is above an eighth grader. We're pushed around in the halls, lunchroom, pep-rallies, football games, and just about everywhere else. Every time we turn around there's an upperclassmen telling us to move.

And to make matters worse, the faculty supports this so-called "class" system. For example, when the school has an assembly, we have to sit in homeroom for an extra five to ten minutes waiting for the upperclassmen to make their way to the auditorium before we're allowed to leave. During the assembly, we're made to sit up in the balcony. We can't sit down on the floor with them. It's almost as if being an eighth-grader is a disease they don't want to catch. To top things off, we have to sit in the auditorium and watch them leave before we are allowed to leave.

It's tough being an eighth-grader, but the thought of being Freshmen next year makes it all worth it. Well — some of it anyway!

These are the future Seniors of 1990?

"It doesn't get any tougher than this."

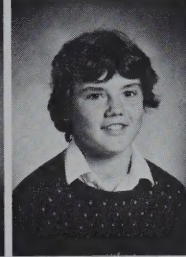

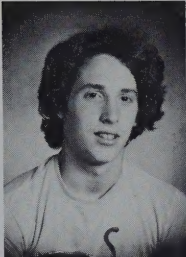

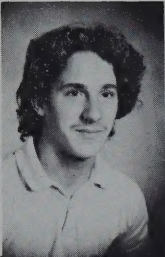

Crystal Jones represents the eighth-grade in Homecoming.

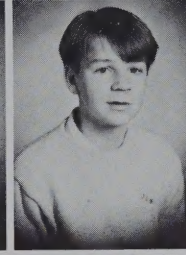

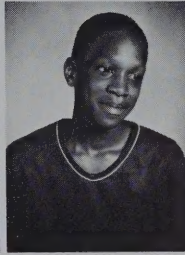

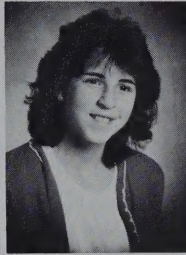

There's got to be a better life!

The Class Of 1990

This is what the eighth graders call a PEP rally.

Below left: Gee! It's not as bad as I thought it would be.

Below: I guess you could say I'm being carried away.

I wonder if that answer is the right one ...

Eighth graders can't wait for the sweetheart dance in February.

Competing for number one.

Officers: Lisa Sullivan, Patti Williams, Shelly Hudson, Bobby Harrison

Kappa is an organization of young men & women who meet monthly to perform service projects for Cradock and its surrounding community. It's members participated in the '85 Homecoming parade, half-time events, and sponsored a child at the childrens Christmas party. The club, one of the oldest in the school, is sponsored by Mr. Jerry Shackleford.

Creativity And Talent . . .

Webster's dictionary defines art as being "the conscious use of skill and creative imagination." And this year's Art Club members know what that means, — lots of hard and dedicated work. Not only are these students using their skills, they are also learning to develop their talent and creativity.

The club gained a new sponsor this year, Mr. Campbell. He helped the club start the year by winning the award for the float that was "Most Original" in the Homecoming parade.

As this club shows, talent and creativity go hand in hand.

Mrs. Bolden, with the help of some of the FBLA members, gets into the spirit of the holidays.

The FBLA Club is probably the largest club here at Cradock. That means more students are interested in business careers than ever before, which is a good sign for the future of corporations and big-businesses. Members of the FBLA compete each year in many competitions including regional, state, and sometimes national. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Linyear with the assistance of the other business teachers.

This year's yearbook staff would like to wish the best of luck to our Future Business Leaders of America!

The Monogram Club is an organization for all people who have played a varsity sport and have earned a letter. The club is composed of approximately twenty-five students from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes.

Traditionally, the Monogram club helps promote school spirit by encouraging rivalry amongst homerooms through the purchase of spirit links to form the never ending spirit chain. This year, the senior homeroom of Miss Pat Rothenberger won this competition, with approximately 650 links. This money was used to help promote the athletic programs here at Cradock and to sponsor a needy child at the annual SCA children's Christmas party.

If anyone is interested in becoming involved in the athletic program here at Cradock and wants a more active part in school life, contact Coach Mac Carroll at the beginning of the school year.

Drama is a composition in verse or prose intended to portray life or to tell a story that usually involves conflicts and emotions through action and dialogue. That's what this year's drama class portrayed in the Christmas production of "Alias Ms. Claus" under the direction of the drama coach, Ms. Kathleen Murphy. This production effectively displayed the emotions and deep feelings families share, especially during the Christmas season. In addition to the well performed Christmas play several members, Susan Posey, Belinda McDowell, Cindy Collins, and Cheryl King of the Drama Club wrote the choral presentation that went along with the Christmas music sung by the Cradock chorus. The future of Cradock's thespians looks bright . . . Watch out Broadway!

The club that was once called Distributive Education Clubs of America has now inherited a new name. The name is Marketing Education Clubs of America.

In this particular club the skills of production, shipping, and selling are learned. Some of the students in this club have been placed in jobs, such as sales, stock, etc. This opportunity leaves them open for positions as managers and executives in marketing.

Being in DECA has allowed many opportunities for very deserving students. Mr. Nick Ashby is the director of the DECA organization.

What is the meaning of Industrial Arts? It is the study of technology. Then you ask, what is technology? It is the utilization of materials, tools, machines, human ability, and knowledge for the changing of man's life and environment.

Industrial Arts provides students with opportunities for experiencing technology. It develops ideas into ideals.

The goal is to assist students in developing leadership qualities and high standards of craftsmanship.

If you've ever walked by Room 219, the room where the yearbook is created, you've probably wondered if our staff is able to get anything done with all the noise coming from inside the door. However, a lot is accomplished behind the mysterious closed door — a whole book is published!

Most of the noise you hear is the exchange of ideas for different pages and different layouts. Then there is the clicking of the only typewriter the staff has. And if you happen to walk by around deadline time, you'll hear the staff screaming things like, "Where's the layout for page 90?"

To be a member of the staff, you have to meet several requirements. First, you must have a 2.0 average. Then you have to write an essay explaining why you want to be on the staff. Mrs. Trueblood, the sponsor of the yearbook, decided to add the essay to the requirements because the staff needs members who have writing ability. However, two of the most important requirements are unofficial ones: creativity and dedication. Many different captions are needed for all the pictures used on the book; therefore, lots of creativity is needed so that no caption is the same.

Just as important is dedication. Putting together a yearbook requires lots of long hours and hard work.

This year's staff had plenty of both as this year's Annual proves. The staff was headed by the sponsor, Mrs. Claudia Trueblood, and the two co-editors, Susan Posey and Robin Gray. Other members included, Seniors: Shawnda Cooper, Barbara Britt and Satu Karmu. Juniors, Donna Mercado, Cindy Laumeier, Teri Carey and Al Lawson. Sophomores, Lauri Carlson, Angelina DeBerry and Charee Cooper. Honorary members were Shane Brook and Cecil Stone.

The 1986 Yearbook Staff gives a big THANK-YOU to Mr. Donald Wilson for the Admiral Cover. His originality and cleverness made this year's cover the best ever.

The following PATRONS helped produce our yearbook by their financial support:

Ronald Jackson

"Hi there

Coming To Cradock

On December 18, 1985 the SCA gave a Christmas party for some very special children. The party was held in the cafeteria and the food was supplied by the SCA. This day held much joy and happiness for many children. The look in their eyes and on their faces was enough to put a lump in anyone's throat. The homeroom who sponsored the children gave many gifts and lots of love. It makes a person feel good inside to know that for one day they made a child very happy.

The highlight of the afternoon was when Santa arrived with his bag of goodies. The children were delighted! They all lined up to sit on Santa's lap and tell him all of the things they wanted for Christmas. And then there was dancing, some of the children got up in the middle of the floor and did some of the cutest things. IT WAS GREAT!!

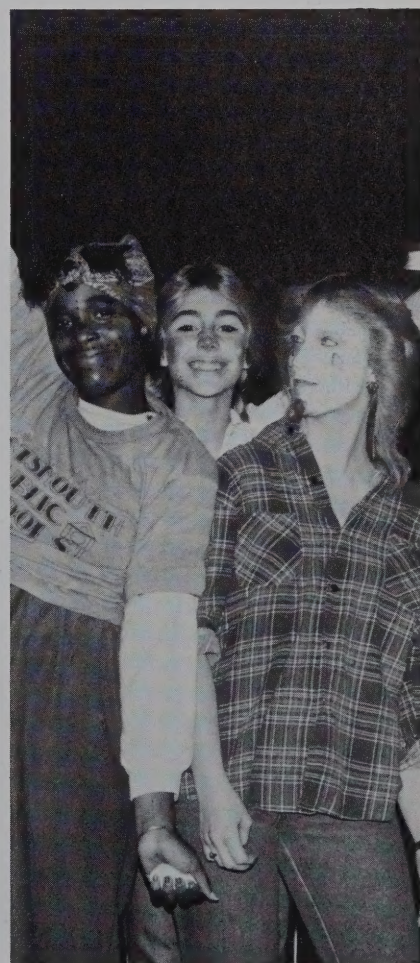

To say the least, the Children's Christmas party was a great success.

The Word "Track"

The Girl's Track Interest Club will surely prepare these young ladies for a future in the Olympics. This club was just developed this year, and with a lady like Mrs. Lottie Short as their sponsor, it's sure to be a winner. The Girl's Track Interest Club was begun to enhance the skills of females with potential track abilities. This year's track season will definitely be successful.

This year, the choral department of Cradock High School encountered many triumphs. In November, many members of the department auditioned for Regional and Festival Chorus. Six members made the Regional chorus, including Keenan Bailey, George Doxey, Kevin Hendley, Belinda McDowell, Cheryl King, and Chuck Seader. Five Beginning Chorus members made Festival including Monique Keary, Regina McClellan, Martinique Perry, Susan Norris, and Garland Self. Keenan Bailey went on to honor our Choral Department by being selected to participate in the all-state chorus. This is the first time in about fifteen years that Cradock had a representative in all-state chorus. The chorus presented their annual Christmas program in December, they also performed for numerous assemblies, including the Black History Month Assembly and the National Honor Society Assembly. In the spring, the choral department along with the drama department presented the musical "Yankee Doodle Dandy."

And The Effort Is Worth It!

Mrs. Barham, the school nurse, is shown here with her helpers; Angela Snell, Christine Pontious, Debra Merricks, and Barbara Britt.

Elizabeth Fitzgerald, Vincent Savage, and Shelly Hudson are three reasons the main office runs smoothly.

One of the library assistants, Lauri Carlson, is showing how hard she works in the library.

Have you ever wondered who those few people you see walking around behind the office desk are? How about in guidance, the nurse's office, or the library? These are the people who take a period out of their daily load to do helpful jobs around our school.

After volunteering, they are chosen by the faculty that they assist. Instead of taking a study hall, the students have decided to do something more useful with the extra time.

The students do not receive money, nor do they receive a credit, but they all do it for one special reason. They enjoy it. The reward for their efforts is the appreciation they receive for their work!

Elizabeth is a senior who is working in the main office and receiving pay through Cooperative Office Education.

Marching Admirals

Performing at football games, pep rallies, parades, and the other special events, the band played a major role in school spirit at Cradock.

This year's band was larger instrumentally than it was last year. The total number of members was 75, including the band-front and Drummajor. "More instruments means more sound and a better balance . . ." says director Mr. Hardie.

The second year under the leadership of Thomas D. Hardie was very successful. The football season was great with the "informal uniforms" and the band's Christmas concert really created a lot of Christmas spirit in everybody's heart. Before the Christmas holidays the band also received their long awaited new uniforms.

Cradock hosted this year's Junior and Senior Regional Band competition.

The band participated at St. Paul's University winning a first place title and at Norfolk State University winning second place for the Drummajor title.

George Hardy, an 8th grader, earned second seat tuba in the District IV Junior Regional Band and senior trumpeter, Marla Fluharty, earned fifth seat in the District IV Senior Regional Band.

The Cradock band is in a growth stage and should level off next year with around 60 to 65 instrumentalists. "The future looks quite promising for the band becoming one of the top bands in the Tidewater area" . . . says director Mr. Hardie.

Dance has become important part of their lives. It may be the future for some. With Mrs. Fisher to help lead the way, it won't be a hard task. They work long and hard on Tuesdays and Thursdays after school to achieve their excellence. Look for great things from this group, they have become an exceptional part of Cradock's BEST!

Practice makes perfect.

Do you think we are all in step?

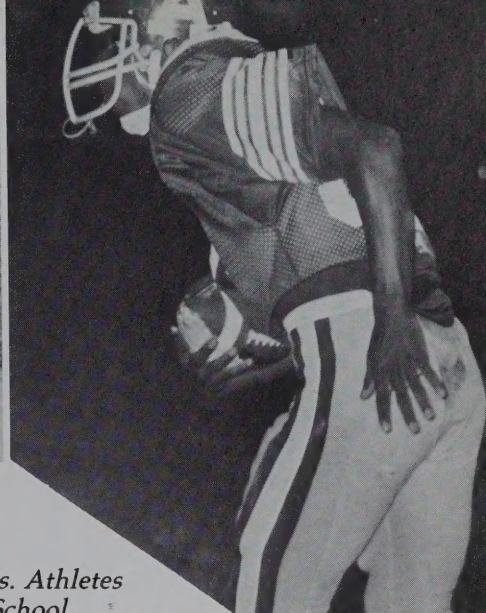

And a one and a two ...

Athletics

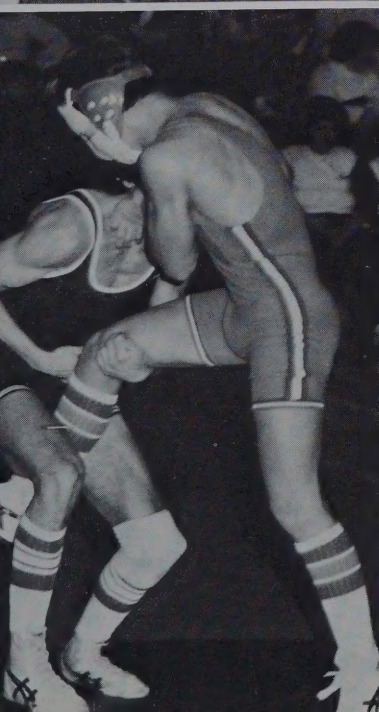

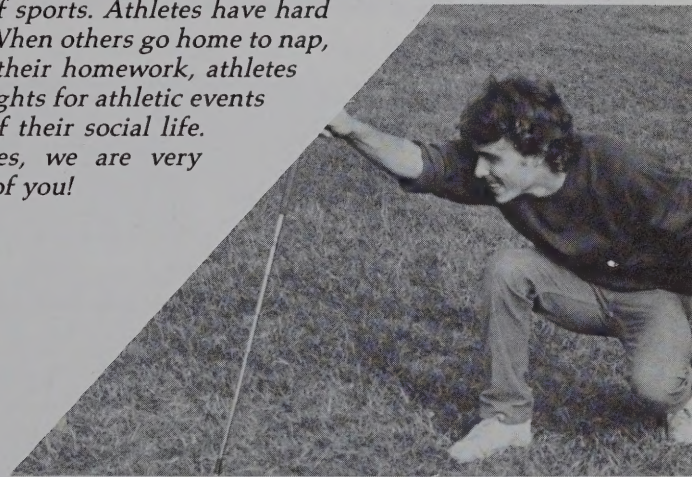

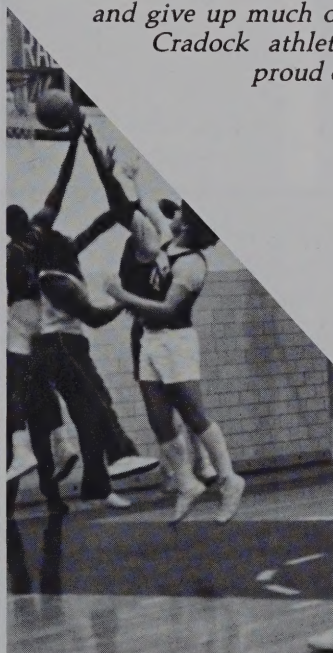

Sports is the main activity that unites students. Athletes are the heart and the soul of Cradock High School.

Athletes give up alot of their time in order to make themselves competitive enough to represent Cradock in hundreds of different events.

We all feel like winners when our team has won. The average person does not realize how much work and time goes into the participation of sports. Athletes have hard practices right after school. When others go home to nap, watch television, and do their homework, athletes sacrifice their Friday nights for athletic events and give up much of their social life.

Cradock athletes, we are very proud of you!

Softball

The '85 Lady Admiral's softball team was led by senior tri-captains center-fielder, Brenda Walker, 3rd baseman, Angie Dorsey and 1st baseman Brenda Ganzenmuller. All 3 seniors have played on the Cradock team for 4 years. Other returning players were 3 year returner, left fielder, Anne Newkirk, and 2 year returner, pitcher, rightfielder, Robin Gray. Other members of the team were sophomores, Teresa Dail, 3rd base, and Mary Beth Rich, 2nd base. The 5 freshmen were, Tana Kirkpatrick, pitcher, Estella Jones, shortstop, Jodi Barnett, catcher, Shelly Franke, 3rd base, and Laurie Carlson, right field.

Due to such a young team, this was a year for learning and constructing. Angie Dorsey led the team with a batting average of 400, and received the Most Valuable Senior Offense award. Golden glove, Brenda Walker, received the Most Valuable Senior Defense award.

Be looking for things to come as Tana improves her pitching and the young Lady Admirals gain more knowledge and skill in fast pitch softball. The team was coached by Coach Dorri Auten and Assistant Coach Jean Todd.

With three girls qualifying for the Eastern Regional Meet, the Girls' Track Team finished the 1985 season with a record of two losses and three victories. With returning veterans Rowena Barber, Melvette Bellamy, Keisa Carver, Paula Copes, Sherdina Granger, Eugenia Hardy, Sheri Munford, Tacenda Simmons, and the coaching talents of Mrs. Lottie Short, the girls team scored victories against Oscar Smith, Norcom, and Churchland. Newcomers for the 1985 season were Monica Atkins, Shannon Chambers, Vernetta Livingston, Kim Hughes, Tangelar Hurdle, Debbie Owens, Leslie Peele, and Melinda Upton. Members of the Junior Varsity team were Reaco Coley, Wanda Stevenson, Paula Livingston, Karen Blake, and Valerie Hughes.

The Girls Track Team started the year off by participating in the Shamrock Marathon in March. On March 27, they scrimmaged with Western Branch, and on the 30th, they entered the Newport News Relays. The girls started off their district season well by defeating Oscar Smith on April 1, and then went on to stomp the Lady Truckers with its highest score of the year of 77 to 39. On the 13th of April, the team entered the Norfolk Invitational Meet where Kim Hughes won first place in the Long Jump, setting a new school record. Unfortunately, the girls hit a slump during the next two meets by being defeated by Wilson on the 17th of April and by Manor on April 24. They were close matches though, with scores of 51-67 and 51-66 respectively. They went on to finish the district schedule by defeating Norcom on May 1 with a score of 61-56. In the Portsmouth city meet, the J.V. team placed first in the 1600 meter relay, and on the 17th, they entered in the Southeastern District meet and finished with three qualifiers for the Eastern Regional meet, Melvette Bellamy, Shannon Chambers, and Diane Clower. The girls finished their season during the summer when they participated in the three mile Portsmouth meet on August 24.

The team captain was Melvette Bellamy and the Co-Captains were Kesia Carver and Paula Copes. The team managers and trainers were Annisa Christopher, Edith Colden, Teresa Mills, Monique Mills, Synora Holley, and Tonya Patterson.

Cross Country: A Year For Rebuilding

Bruce Morgan

Christopher Quesenberry

Donald Clapper — Returning Veteran

Clarence Brown — Coach

Coach Brown explains the course.

For the Cross Country team at Cradock, 1985 was a year for rebuilding. With Donald Clapper as the only returning veteran, the team was never able to compensate for losing most of its senior members. Runners who completed the whole season were Donald Clapper, Joey Quattlebaum, Christopher Quesenberry, Blake Ridgeway, and Markus Smith. Bruce Morgan, who was picked up during the first week of school, also completed the season. Towards the end of the season, Derek White, an eighth grader, started running with the team. Although he was not eligible as a varsity runner, he, along with Bruce, Blake and Joey, is a promising athlete for a strong team in 1986.

Although the team never won, the boys lost by only 25-30 to Manor, making that the closest score for a duel meet in more than 10 years. Joey Quattlebaum also improved during the season to place 14th in the Portsmouth City meet.

Who moved the golf course?

Excuse me Donald, I think you stepped in something!

The 1985-86 Golf Team — Shane Brooks, Donald Clapper, Coach Carroll, Harold Nelson, Sean Yost, and John Harris.

This year the golf team consisted of five players. Three of these players were seniors, Shane Brooks #2, Harold Nelson #3, and Donald Clapper, a veteran of the team and the number one player. Other members of the team were John Harris and Sean Yost. Donald Clapper received the Most Valuable Senior Award because of his outstanding play and dedication to the team. His best score and the teams best score on the front nine holes was forty-five.

This year the golf team practiced at City Park Golf Course on Monday through Friday. The district tournament was held at Stumpy Lake Golf Course and Sleepy Hole Golf Course in the fall.

Next fall Coach Carroll is looking forward to working with his two returning players, Sean Yost, a sophomore and John Harris, a freshman.

They were the teams most improved players. In addition to this experience, the team will be looking for new faces with lots of love and dedication for the sport.

Craddock's Best!

First Winning Season Since 1969

On September 6th the Cradock Admiral Football team unloaded the bus dressed in white ready to face a tough Deep Creek opponent. The score was close the entire game but late in the fourth quarter the Hornets scored a touchdown and then a two point conversion to take the lead 23-22. With just a few seconds remaining on the game clock, the Admirals tried to move the ball down the field and score the winning touchdown, but time ran out. The following week the Admirals traveled to Indian River Stadium to take on the Braves, but the Admirals suffered a crushing defeat at the hands of the Braves. In the third game of the season the Admirals were handed another defeat by the Saints of Nansemond-Suffolk team.

By this time the Admiral players were ready to throw in the towel, but one man could and would turn the Admiral football program around, this man's name is Bob Parker. The next seven weeks the Admirals were victorious over arch rivals Western Branch, Oscar Smith, Churchland, Great Bridge, Manor, Wilson, and Norcom.

The Admirals this season were honored to win the Portsmouth City Championship by defeating all of the Portsmouth High Schools. Out of all four games, the most exciting was a stunning victory over the Presidents of Wilson High.

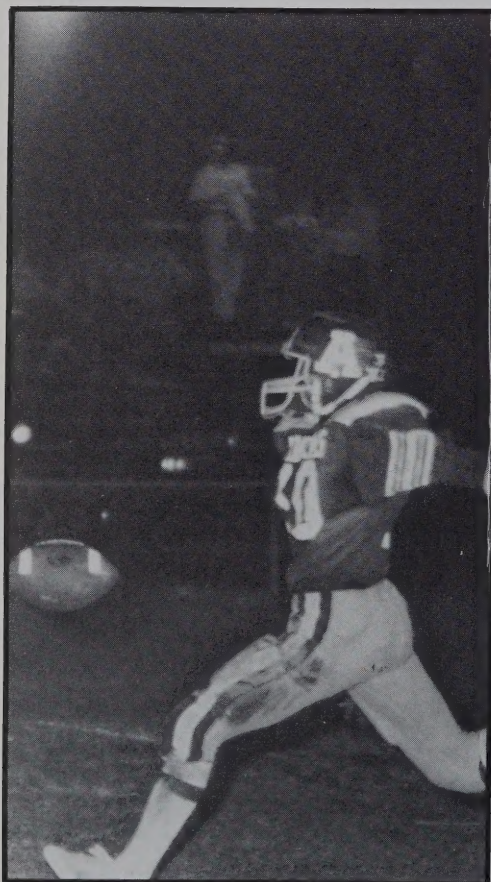

This year the Cradock football coaching staff had a new and welcomed addition, the new coaches' name is David Williams. Coach Williams really taught the defensive players new formations on defense. Other members of the number one coaching staff in Portsmouth were Head coach — Bob Parker, and Assistant coaches Butch Bisese, Scott Johnson, Jack Krammer, David Moss, and Darin Bracy. The football team was helped a great deal by three managers, Big Al Lawson, William Joseph, and Bobby Harrison.

The seniors on this seasons team were Alfred Mayfield, Kevin Chapman, Kevin Branch, Curtis Coles, Henry Barber, Chuck Seader, Carlton Whitfield, Carl Winckler, Patrick Weaver, Derrick Daughtry, Jimmy Gorrell, and David House.

The Admirals had several players that stood out on offense and defense. The leading tackler on the team was Alfred Mayfield, and the leading rusher in the district was Armondo Ward. The Admirals finished off a great season with a 7-3 record.

J.V. Admirals Look Forward To Next Season

This season the J.V. Admiral Football team finished up with a 3-3-1 record. The J.V. Admirals were coached by Mr. David Moss, and assistant Darin Bracy. The Junior Varsity team finished with a forfeit over Western Branch. Some players who really showed a lot of potential for next season back on the J.V. or up to the Varsity football team were Andy Hall, Micheal High, Billy Quattlebaum, David Bowman, Donnell Byrd, and Jason Hines.

Varsity Admirals

The 1985-86 Boys Varsity Basketball team ended the regular season with a 2-7 district record which enabled the team to finish in 8th place and qualified for the district tournament.

The overall record of the Admirals was 9-11 which included the Portsmouth Catholic Christmas Tournament of which the Admirals were declared champions for the second year in a row.

The Admirals were lead by Seniors Curtis Coles, Bryon Griffin, and Mark Maddrey. Returners who gained tremendous experience were juniors Ronnie Mills, who was all city first team as a sophomore, juniors Willie Rodgers, Derek Gardner, Daron Coltrane, Wesley Spruill and Glenn Cooper. The Admirals are looking forward to next season especially since the Junior Varsity team had some very talented players moving up to the Varsity team in the 86-87 season.

MATGIRLS

You're probably wondering what a MATGIRL is? A matgirl is a spunky, talented, and hard working person who helps when needed at wrestling matches. Matgirls cheer at the matches, help give first-aid to the ailing, tally scores, and encourage the wrestlers to give it all they've got. They attend practices, matches, and tournaments.

Being a matgirl takes a lot of time and hard work. Also, it takes a special sort of person. So, if you think you possess these qualities and are willing to give it your all, COME JOIN UP!!!!

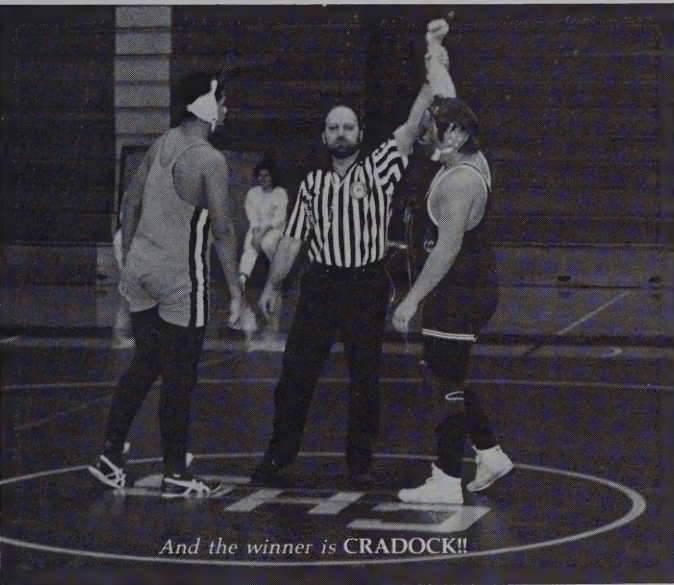

Student Life

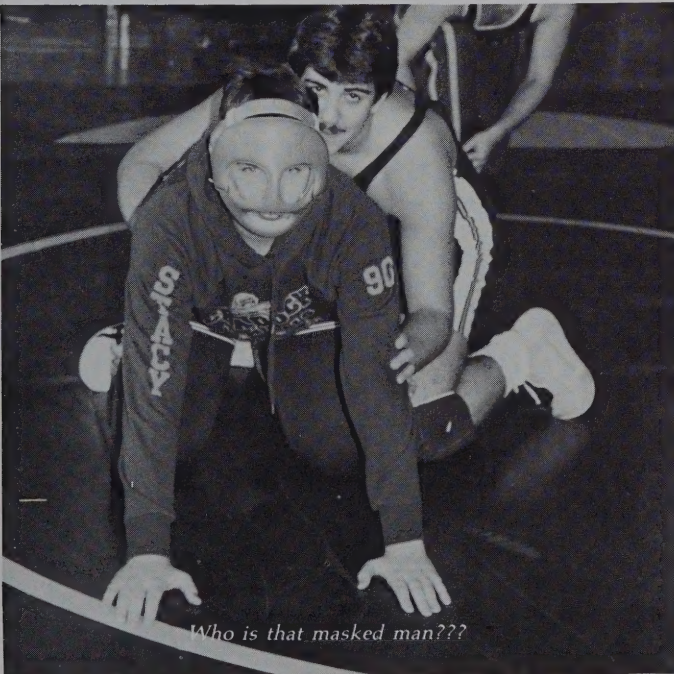

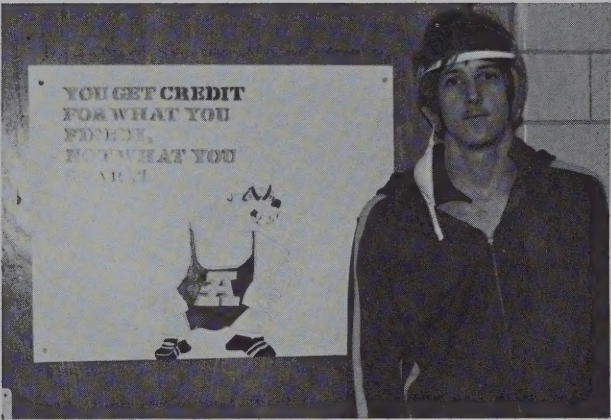

The team waits with anticipation.

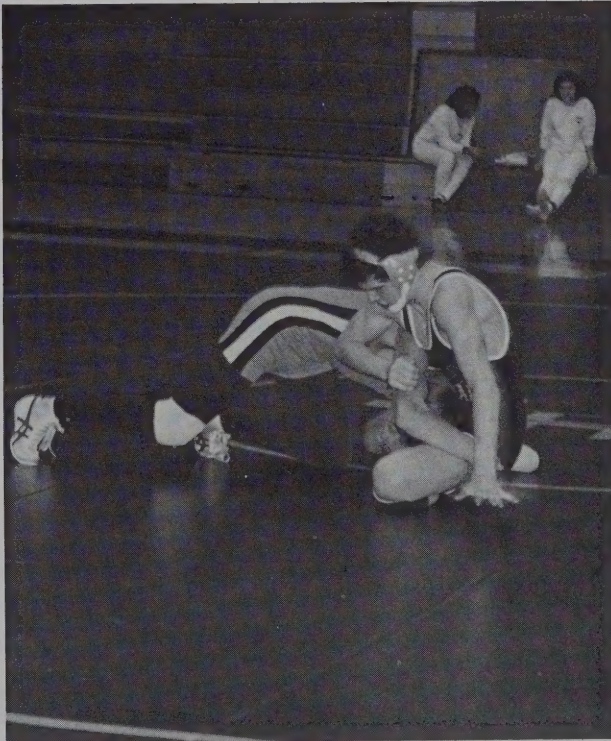

The 1985-86 Admiral wrestling team showed outstanding sportsmanship both on and off the mat. The team was composed of many new wrestlers. The fine coaching of Mr. Moss and Mr. Bracey encouraged these fine young men to show their ability and determination. Although this year was not one of Cradock's most successful, we are sure that 1986-87 will prove to be better.

And the winner is CRADOCK!!

JV WRESTLING

DETERMINATION! DRIVE! ZEAL! STRENGTH! MUSCLES! TALENT! KNOWLEDGE! These are just a few of the things needed to be a successful wrestler. Wrestling is a sport that is not mentioned too often, but it is a test of strength and ability. Being a wrestler means long hard practice, getting into shape, weightlifting and weightlosing.

This year, Cradock's finest were out and stronger than ever. With full force, rookie Jimmy Hall drove for victory by winning 5 matches and losing 3. Jimmy went on to the Regional Tournament showing them his powerful stuff by winning matches and losing.

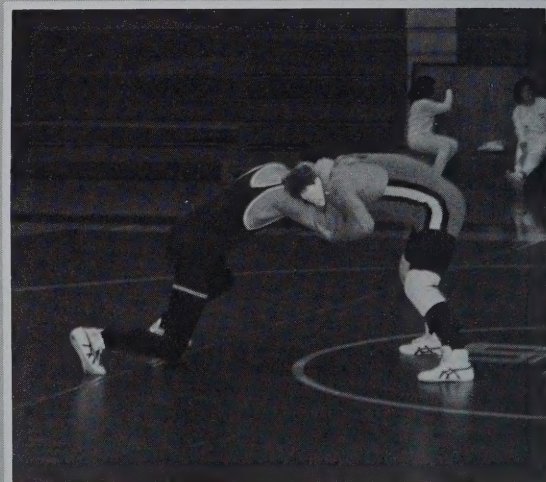

Another well talked about freshman was Jack Polson. It was his first year out on the mat and he suprised us and with his potential and drive. He had 3 victories and was defeated in 5 matches. Also newcomer Jack Brown had 1 win and 7 losses.

Butch Walker, a new guy on the team, showed us what he could do with his strength. Butch pinned an opponent in 48 seconds in a match against Lake Taylor. All of our wrestlers were at their best this year. Keep up the good work!

The wrestlers on the JV team may be young but they have enough strength and drive to slam anyone to the mat. So WATCH OUT 'cause here we come! Next year, our teams will be better than ever!!!

With fierce determination, Troy Waters strives to throw his opponents!

One Giant Step For Juniors!

Tradition has dictated that here at Cradock a special day be set aside for juniors to receive their class rings. December 6, 1985 was this special day for the juniors. The ring ceremony was held in the auditorium during sixth period. The ceremony was catered by the catering class. They provided a smorgasboard of goodies! The juniors bought their rings from Jostens; with the average cost being $200.00. Part-time jobs, lots of babysitting, and allowance was needed to pay this price. The cost was only a minor factor for nothing could stand in the way for the juniors to receive their rings.

A class ring is something that will always be treasured. Class rings have been placed in time capsules and into outer space. Jostens makes the rings for the Super Bowl participants and the Gold medals at the Olympics.

Tradition here at Cradock is that upon receiving your rings, you have your friends turn it the number of the graduating year minus one. That last turn is saved for a special person on graduation night.

From One Country To The Next

Satu Maarit Kormu

Q: What is your country like?

A: The countryside is very pretty during all four seasons. During the summer time the sun never sets and days get really warm, while during wintertime, all is covered by clean, white snow with only a few hours of daylight. The life of a young person is pretty much the same as it is here, dress styles, music, movies, but not as many restrictions as you guys have. We also spend more time in big groups in discos, restaurants, concerts, or just on downtown streets and parks.

Q: How do you like America?

A: I really enjoy being here, and I'm planning to come back and see more places of this wonderful country.

Q: Who is your host family and what are they like?

A: I live with the Kehn family. I'm not just living with them or being their exchange student. I'm their daughter and sister, they are my family.

Q: What was the first thing you wanted to do when you got to America?

A: It was a hot and humid day when I landed at Norfolk airport. Everything was so beautiful. I just wanted to see the whole state right away.

Q: Who is your favorite teacher here at Cradock?

A: I love all my teachers very much. My favorite teacher is Mrs. Trueblood, she teaches me government and yearbook. She's just great.

Q: What do you like about Cradock?

A: A school is a very important part of your life when you are an exchange student, and you all made my American life very nice and easy.

Q: Was it hard to adjust to American life?

A: No way!!!

The smile of a happy Exchange student.

Satu shares a magazine with her new American friends.

Nelly Melocco

Q: What country are you from?

A: I am from Hungary.

Q: How do you like America?

A: Pretty well. Some things I like better and some not at all, but I haven't been to many places in America. America isn't as cramped as Hungary. You see a lot of green grass and you have lots of space to walk. I like the people here also. They are friendly and they smile a lot and give lots of hugs.

Q: Who is your host family?

A: I have no host family, I live on my own with my husband and some other friends from Hungary.

Q: Who is your favorite person at Cradock?

A: It's hard to say because I like a lot of people at Cradock because all of them are very nice.

Q: What is your job here at Cradock?

A: I tutor French and help when ever I am needed. Right now I'm taking people out of the study halls and helping them with their studies.

Q: What do you like most about Cradock?

A: I like the students and the people who work and go here. The first day I didn't like to come but now I love it. I feel that in America the people try to do too many things at one time and they don't get them done as well. Life here is too fast, you are always pushed with deadlines and time.

Q: Do you keep in touch with your family?

A: Yes, I do. I write them a lot and I call them sometimes too.

Q: If you went back to Hungary, would you stay for good?

A: If I went back to Hungary I would stay or in some other place. I like to be mobile. I like to move and see other new and different places.

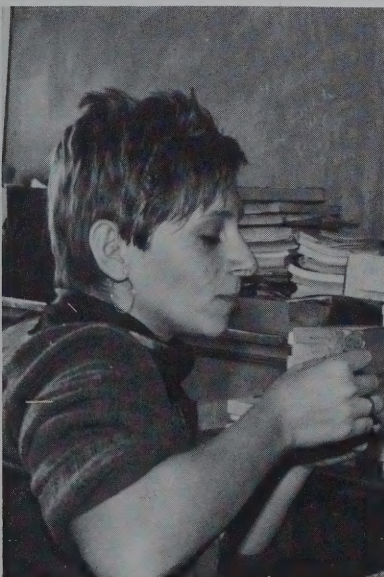

Q: What do you do in your spare time?

A: I paint silk scarfs. I really enjoy it and they are very pretty too.

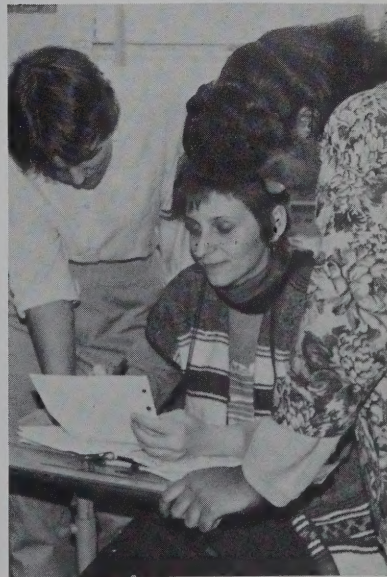

Q: Why did you want to come to America?

A: I wanted to come to America because I wanted freedom and to become an artist.

Mrs. Nelly Melocco has touched the lives of many here at the dock and we are glad we have the experience of getting to know her.

FASHION: "OUTRAGEOUS!"

The one phrase used to describe this year's fashion is "OUTRAGEOUS!" Fortunately for those who were fashion conscious, all colors, lengths, and fabrics were in.

The look for the casual scene was Gucci shirts, printed jeans, and big shirts. These styles came in all colors — blue, green, yellow, red, and so on.

Fluorescent colors faded away while the MADONNA look was in. Many people began wearing jean mini-shirts and sweaters with tank tops underneath.

Bulky sweaters, especially men's, were a big hit for both men and women. Men and women began wearing stripes and plaids. Some women preferred the flowerly look with their printed jeans.

Later in the year, women began wearing pants under their dresses. This showed their independence and it also became popular.

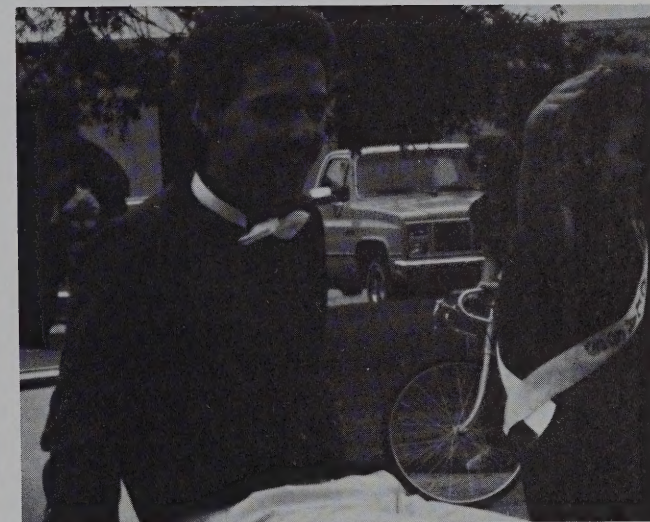

The more dressy styles were long skirts at ankle length. These skirts were usually worn with big shirts. The "skimpy" mini skirts whether leather or jean were popular. Lower heels on shoes replaced the pump heeled shoes.

Accessories jazzed up our wardrobes and this year some of the most diversified options were present. Small earrings (gold and pearl) were considered sophisticated and the long, danglings were trendy and fun. Gold and silver were mostly worn around the neck. Broches became a very popular item. They were attached from shirts to pants. They will be in for a long time.

Silk Shirts were really popular. They came in various styles from long to short and from designer to plain solid colors.

Outerwear became necessary through the wintry months. Broadway 28 jackets or "BOMBERS" as they were commonly called became the HIT of the season! "BOMBERS" were considered "COOL" and the "IN" thing to wear.

As for the summer outlook, the nontraditional colors will stay around. Look for short pants and small tank tops to be the "IN" deal!

Wayne Mixon shows us that "MACHO but FORMAL Look"!!!

The Bonnie and Clyde Look!!!

The Year 1985-86

THE YEAR IN RESTROSPECT

The 1985-86 school year has truly been an exciting one. It has been a year for news making and record breaking.

In the news, the most memorable part of 1985 was hurricane Gloria. She hit Friday morning, September 27, after about a week's notice. Although the damage was not as bad as expected, safety shelters had been set up all over Tidewater. Cradock High School acted as one of those centers for hundreds of people. 1985 was also the year for the Gubernatorial election. It was time for Governor Robb to step down as Governor. The Democrats won in all 3 races. Gerald Baliles won over Wyatt Durrette in the Governor's race. Doug Wilder won over John Chichester to become Virginia's first black Lieutenant Governor. Mary Sue Terry won over Buster O'Brien to become Virginia's first woman Attorney General. Not long after 1986 had arrived, we were hit with another disaster. On January 28, the space shuttle Challenger exploded approximately 72 seconds after take off. There were seven passengers aboard. One was a teacher named Christine McAliffe. She would have been the first civilian to go into space.

In sports, football has never been as exciting as it was this year. The season started out with one of the worst accidents ever. It happened in the game with the Redskins and the Giants. Joe Theisman, a quarterback for the Washington Redskins, was tackled by about 9 of the Giant players. This tackle put him out for the rest of the season by breaking the lower part of his leg in half. Later through the season, the Chicago Bears got their share of recognition with Jim McMahon and William "The Refrigerator" Perry. They did the "Superbowl Shuffle" as they lead the Bears to a 46-10 victory over the New England Patriots in Superbowl XX. The Superbowl was the official ending of football and the start of a new basketball season. Spud Webb a rookie from North Carolina State University made his mark in sports history as being the shortest player ever to make the NBA. He plays just as well as the 7 footers and can do everything they can do including "slam dunk".

In entertainment, Sylvester Stallone made two comebacks. He starred in "Rambo" and in an all time favorite "Rocky IV". A new show stopper was Steven Spielberg's "The Color Purple" starring Whoopi Goldberg. Television was making a comeback with Bill Cosby in "The Cosby Show". Another great show was "Miami Vice". It brought out the fad of wearing Italian suits with T-shirts. The show starred Phillip Michael Thomas and Don Johnson as two of Miami's best.

Yes, this has certainly been an exciting school year, and no one knows what's in store for the years to come.

Decorating for Homecoming '85

Has Mr. Campbell gone to "The Far Side"?!?

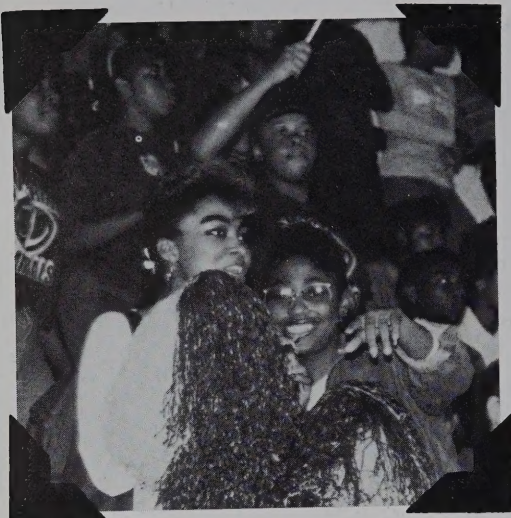

Who is that behind all those balloons?

Well, another year of "crusin the dock" is over! For most of us it's only over for the summer. But for the Seniors, its forever.

This year, like all years, was full of memories, both good and bad. Our football team finished third in the district and number one in Portsmouth! (YEAH)! January came and brought mid-term exams. (YUCK)! The boy's varsity basketball team did better than expected! (SMILE)! After exams, juniors and seniors started term papers. (GROAN)! By April, everyone was ready for the Junior-Senior Prom, which was closely followed by final exams. (I guess you just can't have a good memory without a bad one)!

The '85-'86 Annual Staff has worked hard to try and capture all the memories of this past year. And although another year of "cruzin' the dock" is over, its doubtful that it will soon be forgotten!!

THE MIGHTY JUNIORS OF 1987

The S.C.A. of 1985-86 represented our Cradock High School in many different activities. Among those activities were the Thanksgiving Food Drive, the Children's Christmas Party, the Red Cross Blood Drive, and represented our school at all citywide meetings. Later in the year, several members will serve as Portsmouth city officials. The S.C.A. also presented the annual Miss Cradock Pageant. Approximately 15 lovely young contestants will compete for this title.

Officers and members of the S.C.A. include William Joseph, President, Matty Hinds, Vice-President, Alice Davis, Secretary, and Kellie Loose, Treasurer; members are Danielle Seburn, Patrick Weaver, Howard Poteet, Janet Frost, and Donald Clapper. Mr. A.B. Fane serves as sponsor.
